

32 HOUR SILENCE HIDES PLANE

SENATE PASSES
FARM BILL BY VOTE OF 53 TO 23Veto Certain; Hope to Override It.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., April 12.—[Special.]—Farm relief legislation similar to that which was vetoed in the last congress by President Coolidge was approved today by the senate.
The McNary bill, a revision of the McNary-Haugen bill of the last session, was passed by a vote of 53 to 23. It includes a 400 million dollar loan fund and provides for the assessment of an equalization fee upon the entire production of a commodity, to meet losses in handling crop surpluses.
On the basis of this vote supporters of the legislation were hopeful that it might be possible to pass the measure over the President's veto. The affirmative total represented two more than two-thirds of those voting. There were 23 absentees, however, who were not voted and there was no certainty that a two-thirds vote could be mustered to override a presidential veto.

Veto Deemed Certain.
That President Coolidge again will veto the bill is regarded as a certainty. The President has made it plain to all at the White House that the retention of the controversial equalization fee makes it impossible for him to approve it.

The next step will be in the house, where the committee on agriculture already has approved the Haugen bill, which is similar in all essentials to the McNary bill. The house rules committee today agreed to take up the farm bill as soon as flood control legislation which has the right of way next week is disposed of.

Subsequent votes to pass the bill in the house are said to be assured and there also are the sponsors of the legislation hope to obtain a two-thirds vote.

24 Republicans for It.
Those voting for the McNary bill in the senate today included 24 Republicans, 28 Democrats and one Farmer-Labor member. Against the bill were 11 Republicans and 9 Democrats.

The roll call was as follows:
FOR THE BILL.

Boehmer	Gooding	Odell
Boehmer	Le Follet	Robson (Ind.)
Boehmer	McNary	Schell
Boehmer	Norbeck	Van Dusen
Boehmer	Nye	Watson—24.

AGAINST THE BILL.

Boehmer	Griggs	Philips
Boehmer	Robson	Robson (Ind.)
Boehmer	McNary	Schell
Boehmer	Norbeck	Van Dusen
Boehmer	Nye	Watson—24.

Western and southern senators for the most part lined up in favor of the bill. Special amendments applying to the McNary bill were approved by the senate.

UNEARTH CLEWS
TO MURDERERS
OF ELLER RIVALBar Inquiry Clashes
with Coroner.

Information was made available to the authorities yesterday that may lead to the arrest of the primary day murderers of Octavius Granady, Negro lawyer and candidate against Morris Eller for Republican committeeman of the 20th ward.

Several separate investigations of this murder are under way. The inquiries also will include the general bomb and crime situation and all matters pertaining to attempts to steal the election. Facts were being revealed and pieced together and a series of prosecutions was promised.

Obtain Clews to Killers.

Reports of election watchers were being compared and in putting two items of information together, the officials were certain they were on the trail of the Granady killers. The slayer had pursued the lawyer for several blocks in an automobile race which ended when Granady was in the range of a machine gun that pumped a hundred bullets a minute at him and his automobile.

Two watchers of the Denen faction were kidnapped by men now believed to have been Granady's murderers. They were taken to a house in the 20th ward—which they have since located—and held prisoner all day, being released after the results of the election were known.

See Kidnapers as Slayers.

These watchers have also made a partial identification of the automobile used by the kidnapers, according to those in charge of the investigation. The investigators were positive in their belief that, when the finger is pointed at the kidnapers the identity of the machine gun murderers also will be revealed.

The election terrorism did not cease with the primary for Bingley C. Cyrus, an undertaker and Denen precinct captain living in the rear of his place of business at 5037 Indiana avenue, he said. A threat to bomb his place at 9 o'clock last night had him worried and he said he had pleaded vainly for protection.

Accuses Thompson Man.

Cyrus, who is colored, laid his troubles to Louis Silverstein, who he says is operating a gambling place nearby and who is the Thompson man in the precinct. Cyrus said his partner, Roscoe Taylor, had also been threatened and that during the campaign he was harassed in his business. He stated that one of his workers, Albert O. Dale, was kidnapped on election day and that another, Sedgewick R. Johnson, was assaulted.

Although hundreds of acts of violence were alleged, and written reports were received giving names, places, and facts, the forces representing prosecution were concentrating yesterday on the Granady murder. So important did they regard the uncovering of the perpetrators of this crime that a bitter political argument prevented the holding of the inquest on the slaying.

Dispute Over Inquest.

Coroner Oscar Wolf, who was re-nominated on Tuesday by the Thompson faction, had decided to take personal charge of the inquest which was to have taken place at the county morgue. A jury was impaneled and ready to hear the evidence when a battery of lawyers filed in.

Judge Daniel P. Trude was the leader. Attorney Harold S. Tyler and Attorney B. C. Cyrus represented the Cook County Bar association and attorneys Francis X. Busch and Charles Center Case the Chicago Bar association. The bar associations had taken the initiative in the demand for prosecution of election criminals. Attorney Case said he was also acting in his capacity as special state's attorney under the appointment by County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki.

Two $1,000 Reward Offers.

Judge Trude announced that he was offering a reward of $1,000 for the arrest of the murderers. Edward R. Litigier, member of the board of review, who was re-nominated in Tuesday's primary, also offered a reward of $1,000. These attorneys immediately announced their opposition to the personal charge of the coroner's jury. They asked the right to question the jurors, and Judge Trude began the questioning by asking if any of the jurors knew Morris Eller, the successful opponent of Granady, and also one of the successful candidates for Republican.

CARTOONS OF THE DAY

NOW HE'S SURE
FRIDAY AND 13
MEAN BAD LUCK

Miller Longwell, 16 years old, 301 North Roselle avenue, Oak Park, is convinced that Friday the 13th, is all that superstitious reports have made it. Late last night Longwell, who is a student at Oak Park High school, and Fred W. Spilver, 1161 Clarence avenue, Oak Park, were riding in an automobile near Spilver's home when three armed men stopped them. The bandits took possession of the car and, with Longwell and Spilver as prisoners, made an extended journey through the suburbs and the western part of Chicago.

Finally they halted near Mayfield avenue and Washington boulevard. From Spilver they took a watch and $5. But one of the robber took wasn't satisfied. He decided he wanted Longwell's clothes. He got them. Longwell, clad in shoes, socks, and underwear, was tossed out with Spilver. The latter persuaded a motorist to take the youth home. As Friday the 13th was well on its way, Longwell was dashing up the front steps of his home in garb that might have made the neighbors wonder, if they had seen him, what the youth of today is coming to.

PARIS, April 12.—Carter Harrison, five times mayor of Chicago, gave this Tribune the following message today: "My congratulations to the Republic of Chicago and Illinois for the rebuke administered to the combination of political corruption, fraud, chicanery, hypocrisy, and buffoonery that made a mockery of American ideals and institutions. I only wish the Democrats of Chicago and Illinois would turn their faces likewise to the light. They need new leadership."

"I suppose my guess is as good as another's, and I am basing the prediction that when the Hoover and Lowden forces meet on the convention floor, clash and fall, Senator Charles S. Deneen will look like a mighty gnat prospect—but we will get him in November."

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., April 12.—(AP)—Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, wife of the President, left for Washington at 7:25 o'clock tonight, ending the third visit she has made here since last January to see her aged mother, Mrs. Lemira Goodhue, who is ill at the Dickinson hospital. Lieutenant Commander Joel T. Boone of the White House medical staff said that Mrs. Goodhue's condition was as good as to warrant Mrs. Coolidge's return to Washington.

U. S. Deputy Gets Fine for Illegal Raid

Richard Joseph Murphy, United States deputy marshal, assigned to serve federal warrants for prohibition violations, heard something yesterday that affected him a man's home is his castle, not to be entered without proper process, even in search of a liquor violator. Judge Frank M. Padden in the Shakespeare police court imposed a fine of $100 and costs on Murphy, despite the appearance in his behalf of Assistant United States District Attorney Daniel Anderson.

Henry Lanberg, 875 North Richmond street, a fruit peddler, and his aged mate, Frida, told how Murphy slugged them in their home on March 30, while in search of Sam Hoffing, a son-in-law, for possessing and transporting liquor.

Refuse to Drop Case.

For several hours the telephone wires between the federal building and the courtroom were kept busy with messages from the marshal's and the district attorney's offices. The judge and Aid. Jacob Arvey, who appeared to defend the rights of Lanberg and his wife, refused to allow the prosecution to be dropped, or continued.

After the assistant district attorney's effort to keep the dry spy from being punished, it was announced by Marshal Palmer Anderson that he had issued a suspension order. He will investigate Murphy's conduct, he said.

Lanberg and his wife testified that Murphy, without even knocking on the door, came into their home "like a wild man" and demanded that Hoffing be produced. Hoffing did not live with the Lanbergs, but resided in his own flat on the lower floor.

"He hit my husband three or four times, knocking out one of his teeth," testified Mrs. Lanberg. "When I tried to interfere he hit me on the arm and mouth. He pushed my husband down the steps like a murderer or a dog."

Their Stories Differ.

Murphy's story was different. He walked into the flat, he said, quietly and only "backslapped" Lanberg when the latter tried to push him down the steps. He denied hitting the wife. He arrested Lanberg, but later released him, he said, when he impressed on him the difference between a badge of authority from the government and that of an ordinary policeman.

"There is an old hackneyed phrase, but it means a lot, that a man's home is still his castle," said the judge. "It is not only inviolate from entrance by a government officer without proper authority, but after he gets in there, even if he had proper authority, he must execute his process, and that is the only business he has in there."

"I must say that it was an outrageous piece of work, to go in another

TRAGEDY WALKS
PICTURE SHOW

When Theodore Henning, janitor, last night started to reel off moving pictures in the University of Chicago settlement house, across the street from his home at 4619 Gross avenue, he discovered that an electric street light threw a bright glare on the screen and dimmed the scenes.

That was unsatisfactory, and Theodore's 17 year old son, Clarence, offered to climb the pole and hang a shade over the light so that all could enjoy the movies.

The picture machine was stopped. Some of the audience went to the windows and some went outside to watch young Henning climb the twenty feet up the pole to the light. As he reached over to adjust the shade there was a sudden flash, his body stiffened, then crumpled from the pole to the ground.

The youth had somehow come in contact with a high voltage wire. He was instantly electrocuted.

Il Duce Hunts
Men Who Set
Bomb for King

ROME, April 12.—King Victor Emmanuel's festival inauguration of the great Milan fair this morning was turned into a holocaust of crime and death. The whole of Italy is seething with emotion tonight.

A dynamite clock bomb hidden in the base of a flag post at the entrance gate to the fair grounds in Piazza Giulio Cesare exploded a few minutes before 10 o'clock, just before the long parade escorting the king reached the gate. It showered iron splinters and missiles into the crowd packed in the semi-circular piazza, killing fourteen people outright, maiming forty more for life, and rocking the surrounding buildings. Another victim died in a hospital shortly after.

Among the dead were four women, two babies, one policeman, one Alpine soldier, and six men.

King Is Delayed.

The king owes his life probably to the fact that he was delayed ten minutes in getting to the fair and took another route, entering the procession which was to follow him to proceed alone.

News of the infernal machine's explosion soon spread throughout the city. Podesta Belloni immediately telephoned Premier Benito Mussolini at Visnola, asking the Duce summoned a meeting of his aids and after a short conference, during which the Italian dictator was bursting with fury, the police force was mobilized and squads of special inspectors were sent to Milan.

At the same time the police began making arrests everywhere. A large number of arrests were made in Rome, Milan and all other Italian cities.

To Embarrass Fascism.

The general opinion is that the attempt was made rather against the Fascists than against the king, since the repercussions of the attempt were intended to scare people away from the international fair, according to the first theories.

Orders have been given to all the prefects of Italy to investigate the circumstances of the explosion. There was one single, indignation demonstration held at Milan tonight, when huge crowds gathered and cheered for the king.

Premier Mussolini tonight sent a wire to the king assuring him of the devotion of the entire nation, and also wired the prefect at Milan to send flowers to the families of all the victims.

Defies His Enemies.

"I am sure that Milan is powerfully Fascist and will answer these acts of surviving criminality with a cry more intense than ever, in the future of the nation and regime. Our enemies will not prevail," said the telegram.

As a token of the solidarity in indignation against the crime, Rome and every city in Italy tonight is early illuminated. Flags and flowers are on every public building.

King Victor Emmanuel's arrival at Milan this morning, where he was hailed by large crowds at the station, gave no forecast of the harrowing scenes which were to follow shortly after in Piazza Giulio Cesare.

The king met the king at the station, followed his carriage a short distance toward the royal palace, but before his arrival there orders were given to the panders to go directly to the exhibition grounds. The king proceeded to the royal palace, then to the fair.

Meanwhile the parade reached Via Dante and then went on to Piazza Giulio Cesare, which extends in an arc from a street flanked with trees. The piazza was gay with flags and bunting, and jammed with people to see the king.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., April 13.—[1 a. m.]—At midnight tonight weather conditions were fast becoming more and more unfavorable to the success of the German-Irish trio which hopped off from Dublin at 5:38 a. m. (11:38 p. m. Chicago time) in the Junkers airplane Bremen in an attempt to make the first westbound flight over the Atlantic to America.

The skies, which earlier had been clear, with excellent visibility, were lowering as the hour the flyers had been expected to reach New Foundland neared. There is a fine light mist and the forecast indicates a heavy gale is brewing, with possible rain or sleet.

Unconfirmed Report of Plane.

No word of the flyers had been received from the lighthouses, wireless stations, and telegraph stations along the coast. A railway operator at Shoal harbor, at the head of Trinity bay, sent an unconfirmed report that several persons had heard what sounded like an airplane passing in a westerly direction at 3:30 p. m. This report is largely discounted, as even with most favorable conditions the flyers could hardly have reached here much before midnight.

No Word from Ship.

As the night drew towards midnight crowds of people gathered, prepared to watch throughout the night for the Bremen to pass. It is extremely doubtful that it does pass it will be possible to see it, due to the condition of the atmosphere.

Late this evening none of the 300 ocean liners plying across the Atlantic had reported sighting the Bremen or having heard its engines. Among these ships in midocean are the Albatross, Ballin, Cleveland, Veendam, Cedric, Minnowaska, Muenchen, Stockholm and Laurentic. Should the plane meet with forced a cigar to the Irish air chief, who refused it, declaring he would wait "until I arrive in New York."

The food supplies were cut down at the last moment. The aviators contented themselves with only half their original supply in order to lighten the machine.

The Bremen carries a marble crucifix in the cockpit, which was presented to the aviators by the officers of the Irish air force. The machine flies both the German imperial flag, and the Free State tricolor.

Baron von Huenefeld handed out the following message just before starting: "On leaving the Irish Free State, Capt. Koehl and I express our deep, sincere gratitude to all. We found here counsel and active help and complete human understanding on the part of the civil and military authorities, as well as the army and Irish people. Consequently, it is an unusual pleasure to start the flight together with the commander of the Irish air force, whose officers, subalterns and privates assisted our preparations with exemplary comradeship. May God, into whose omnipotent hand we place the success of this enterprise, fulfill for this land and its people our grateful prayers for a happy future."

WIFE IS PLUCKY

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

BERLIN, April 12.—Capt. Koehl's wife is tense, but plucky. In a voice that in these last hours has become brittle and quivering, she said:

"I have courage enough to last tonight and all day tomorrow. But tomorrow night, when the last hour of the flight comes, I will need it all."

The German press is withholding comment. Only Prof. Hugo Junkers, one of the deans of German aviation, and constructor of the all metal plane Bremen, spoke in the name of the aviators.

"As Capt. Koehl, Baron von Huenefeld, and Col. Fitzmaurice take off, it is my pleasant duty to follow them with the heartiest greeting that aviators know—Luck up. They face the risks and with cool calculation have prepared, as far as present means permit. Their deed is one of great courage, whether they succeed or not. As pioneers, they stake their lives to further man's mastery over nature. Such daring effort binds men together with the feelings common to humanity."

Army and Navy to Aid.

Washington, D. C., April 12.—(AP)—The navy department this afternoon ordered all stations on the New England coast to give all assistance possible to the German flyers on the Bremen. Secretary Wilbur said it was still too early to make any plans to send out navy airplanes to meet the Bremen.

The commanding generals of the army corps areas at Boston, New York, and Baltimore also were instructed by the secretary of war to extend every facility, courtesy, and assistance to the aviators should they land in their territory. The order was given by Secretary Davis after conferring with the German ambassador.

N. Y. Reception Plans.

New York, April 12.—(AP)—Elaborate plans were made in New York to receive the aviators in the plane Bremen. Since the plane was not expected until noon or later tomorrow, the landing lights at Mitchell field were not burned tonight.

The flying field was to be policed by large details of soldiers and police.

NO WORD OF OCEAN PLANE

No definite word has been received from the German Junkers plane Bremen, which hopped off from Dublin at 11:30 p. m. (Chicago time) yesterday for America. The last news of the plane was off the west coast of Ireland a couple of hours after it hopped off. Latest reports from Newfoundland said a gale was blowing over the ocean.

Plane Facts

BREMEN—All metal commercial type, wings full cantilever, spread 55 feet, fuselage 35 feet long. License No. D-1167. No radio.

ENGINE—Single Junkers L-5, water cooled. Maximum horsepower, 350. Maximum speed, 130 miles per hour. Best speed for present flight, 90 miles per hour. Fuel consumption, fifteen to eighteen gallons gasoline per hour.

BARON EHRENFRIED GUNTHER VON HUENFELD—Born Koenigsberg, 1892. War veteran, close friend former crown prince, with whom he spent some time in exile. Spent last cent and borrowed from friends to cover cost of flight. Made unsuccessful attempt to fly Atlantic in Bremen last summer.

CAPT. HERMANN KOEHL—Pilot, born, Ulm, Germany, 1888. German aviator in war, shot down twice over French lines. Piloted Bremen on trans-Atlantic attempt last year.

COL. JAMES FITZMAURICE—Co-pilot, born, Dublin, 1888. Commandant of Irish Free State air service. British army in war. Made unsuccessful trans-Atlantic attempt last year, coming down on Irish coast.

and delegations from New York flyers' organizations and German and Irish societies made plans for a royal welcome. Mayor Walker appointed Grover Whalen, head of the mayor's committee for the reception of distinguished guests, to receive the flyers in the name of New York City.

BLAZING OF NEW AIR TRAIL AIM OF IRISH PILOT

Greet America as Ship Starts Westward.

By Commandant James Fitzmaurice
(Office Commandant Irish Free State Air Force, Second Pilot of the Bremen. Copyright in the United States, Canada, South America, Mexico, and Cuba by the New York Times Company. Copyright in Great Britain and Ireland by the Irish Times.)

[Copyright: 1928: By the New York Times.]
BALDONNELL, Irish Free State, Thursday, April 12.—It is recorded that on one occasion, when Wilbur Wright was approached by the press for details of the progress which he and his brother were making on their machine, he said:

"A parrot is a bird which talks most and flies least."

I cannot more aptly describe my present feelings, and I consider Wright's dictum an excellent one for all aviators.

We want to get on with this job of completing the conquest of mother Atlantic so that the next stage for aeronautical progress may stand out as an incentive to the world's aviators.

Pioneers Vindicated.

We gently smile now at Blériot's effort in crossing the English channel in 1909. Our children will doubtless have the same outlook on present Atlantic flying.

Yet the feats of the early pioneers are no less in the qualities of courage and air valor, than those accomplished by their followers. The difference rests simply in the machine and not in the man. We will not get aircraft to cross the Pacific in a single flight until we have got them for flying both ways across the Atlantic.

When this has been done—and I hope the honor, in part, for the first western crossing will be brought to Ireland—another Lindbergh or the same will lead the way to fresh paths of conquest.

Thanks Germans.

I wish to thank my gallant German comrades in the name of Ireland for allowing me to participate in this flight. The fact that I am flying with Baron von Huenefeld and Capt. Koehl in itself demonstrates the great progress that has been made in transforming aviation from a war weapon into a peace force.

Ten years ago, such a flight would have seemed impossible. Then, with many thousands of Irishmen, I was fighting against the Germans.

Today I am flying with them to America on a mission of good will. All three of us are actuated by the single desire to blaze a trail from east to west.

Carefully Prepared.

This flight of the Bremen is not one undertaken as the result of a sudden impulse. It had been carefully planned for months by my German friends long before they landed at Baldonnell on March 16 from the Dussau air-dome eighty miles south of Berlin.

A fortnight ago, everything was ready for the start except the weather. Day by day we have studied atmospheric conditions and weather forecasts from the British air ministry.

For the first time they are really favorable, and so we are off. But we were prepared to wait another fortnight, or another month if need be, to get the right conditions.

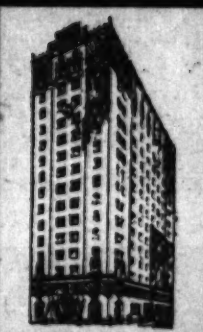

The machine itself is one that inspires confidence. All the skill and science of the German designers and mechanics have been put into the all-metal Junkers airplane, Bremen. It has fuel enough for 48 hours' flying—270 gallons of petrol, weighing about 2½ tons.

The machine is ready and my friends are waiting to start, and I will conclude this dispatch with greetings to America.

God willing, we will be with you soon. If we take off before 8 o'clock this morning, we expect to arrive in New York between 3 and 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

PLAN CONTESTS TO HIT MAYOR'S FEW WINNERS

Deneen Forces Charge Ballot Frauds.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

Contests on the part of Deneen county candidates defeated according to the police returns on the primary are assured as soon as the official canvass of the votes has been made.

"We will file contests and open up the fraud apparent in many precincts of the wards controlled by the Thompson organization," Judge Daniel P. Trude declared. He was busy yesterday collecting evidence and preparing for a big drive against vote stealers.

"Results may be overturned in some precincts, even in wards, when the truth is known," he added. "Contests are certain in all cases where the vote is as close as 25,000. It will be a sort of blanket contest by the Deneen candidates. That will open up this whole situation. The impression seems to prevail that this mainly was a quiet and orderly election, but the fact is that there were many frauds."

Recalls Esposto Murder.

"We will find out what went on in the old 'bloody nineteenth' for instance, where Joe Savary was made committeeman by default, due to the previous murder of Joe Esposto. It must not be forgotten that Esposto was the only Deneen man to carry his ward during the Thompson landslide of two years ago. The First and Second wards, and the Thirty-first also will come in for special attention."

Contests in Morris Eller's ward, the Twentieth, are prompted by the results in the sanitary district race. Edward R. Litsinger, in addition to offering a reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of the murderers of Octavius Gray, who was running for ward committeeman against Eller, will file a contest on behalf of John H. Glenn, candidate for sanitary district, who is defeated on the unofficial returns.

Launches Fight on Eller.

"This contest will be filed and it will be pressed to a conclusion against Eller," Mr. Litsinger said. "The time has come to call a halt on his activities."

Mr. Glenn is secretary to Mr. Litsinger and is vice president of the U. S. Tent and Awning company. On the police returns he lost by 15,000 votes to Eller.

Edwin R. Wright, another Deneen candidate for sanitary district, also is expected to file a contest, although he lost to Eller by more than 40,000 votes.

The trick of the Eller people in getting the name of James Smith, a candidate unknown except to his backers, last on the ballot, is what brought defeat to the three Deneen men on the sanitary ticket, in addition to any friends that may be revealed. Smith, because he was last, got about $5,000 votes. Many people thought he was one of the Deneen group.

Well to Face Contest.

Contests are promised for Hugo C. Fisher, Deneen candidate against Coroner Oscar Wolff. Fisher lost by 21,000 votes and lost to A. W. Sullivan, Deneen candidate for assessor against Ald. Eugene L. Nusser. Ald. Nusser, who is the son-in-law of the Thompson henchman, George Hittman, won by 1,500 votes on the police returns.

Ald. Titus Haffa, who is under indictment in the federal court, and former Ald. Arthur F. Albert, who were rival candidates for ward committeemen in the Forty-third, have started new hostilities over the police returns. The police returns show that Haffa won by 149 votes. Albert says he won by 114 votes.

Haffa hoodlums raided the polling place of the twentieth precinct and stole the ballot box, while the police were absent, according to Albert. This precinct is in the part of the ward where Albert has been strong, and the vote there would show, he says, 223 for him and 114 for Haffa. This would give Albert the committeeship by 114 votes. A hot contest is certain here.

UNEARTH CLEWS TO MURDERERS OF ELLER RIVAL

Investigators in Clash with Coroner.

Dean nomination as sanitary district trustee.

Four Say They Know Eller.

Four of the men selected to act as jurors said they knew Eller.

"I don't want you to make any political issue of this inquest," interrupted Coroner Wolff.

"Well it is a political inquest and it was a political murder," Judge Trude asserted. "This man was killed because he was opposing Morris Eller and we don't want any of Morris Eller's friends on the jury."

"Two of these men on the jury are closely acquainted with Mr. Eller," Attorney Busch said to Coroner Wolff. "And while I do not believe they are here on orders of Mr. Eller I think they might be influenced by their friendship for him."

Discuss Issue in Secret.

To avoid a public airing of the charges of politics the attorneys and Coroner Wolff stepped into a private room. There, it was later learned, Judge Trude discussed the integrity of two of Coroner Wolff's subordinates and mention was made concerning the interest of another deputy coroner in the selection of the jurors.

Coroner Wolff eventually dismissed the jury and ordered the inquest continued until today when a new jury is to be selected. Those dismissed are: Eugene Mancinelli, a jeweler of 1013 South Halsted street.

Louis H. Felzman, merchant, 701 Home avenue, Oak Park.

Frank A. W. Johnson, 739 Roosevelt road, assistant cashier of the West Side Trust and Savings bank.

Nathan C. Kessler, furniture merchant, 1138 South Halsted street.

Isaac Turner, clothier, 1200 South Halsted street.

Howard Perry, manager of credit department, Schiff Trust and Savings bank, 738 West Roosevelt road.

Felzman said he had known Morris Eller for 15 years but on further questioning said he didn't know him intimately but through the newspapers. Johnson said he knew both Morris Eller and his son, Judge Emanuel Eller, who had small accounts in the bank where he was employed. Turner said he had known the Ellers for a number of years and Perry said he knew the father slightly.

United States District Attorney George E. Q. Johnson was known to be interested in this report of fraud at the primary, since a government statute gives the district attorney jurisdiction in any election where United States officers are being chosen.

There was a general admission that an election investigation by the federal grand jury would be in conjunction with its investigation of the bombing of the home of United States Senator Charles S. Deneen and the general inquiry into corruption pertaining to prohibition matters.

Move to Call Carlsstrom.

The Bar associations and Judge Jarecki, working with the election commissioners, were said to be preparing a statement of facts upon which to base an appeal to Chief Justice William V. Brothers of the Criminal court to enter an order directing Attorney General Oscar E. Carlsstrom to take charge of the Cook county grand jury and all prosecutions arising from the inquiry. At the attorney general's Chicago office it was explained that he is in the position of a judge who must not presume upon what the facts are or may be, but must await the presentation to him of a report and an order of the court giving him jurisdiction to proceed.

REPUBLICANS SET ALL TIME RECORD IN PRIMARY VOTE

Incomplete Returns Show
1,570,639 Ballots.

Returns from all except 307 of the 8,534 precincts in the state showed that Louis L. Emmerson had received for governor a plurality of 421,119 over Len Small. Returns from all except 538 precincts gave Otis F. Glenn for senator a plurality of 245,674.

Further returns yesterday from the Tuesday primary showed that the Republican vote cast exceeded the largest Republican vote ever cast at an election.

In November, 1924, Coolidge received the largest vote ever cast in Illinois for any candidate. It was 1,432,221, the record Republican vote for all time in the state.

Yet this figure was exceeded when returns from all except 307 of the 8,534 precincts in the state showed that Louis L. Emmerson and Len Small, the two candidates for the Republican nomination for governor, had between them 1,570,639 votes, or 117,518 more than were cast for Coolidge. If the precincts yet unheard from report 200 votes each there will be above 80,000 more to be added to the 1,173,181.

County Breaks Record.
In Cook county the vote also broke all records. In the 1924 election President Coolidge received 688,973 votes. In Tuesday's primary Small and Emmerson combined received 754,878 votes on the face of not quite complete returns. Nor was this all. Crowe, Swanson, and Landis, the three candidates for the Republican nomination for state's attorney, have already rolled up a total vote of 728,809, nearly 80,000 more than the Cook county vote for the President in 1924.

Of course the natural increase in population would account for some of the increase in the primary vote, but it would not account for its exceeding the Republican vote at a general election. It is admitted by both Republicans and Democrats that the reason for the increase was the wholesale voting of Democrats in the Republican primary.

It had been no secret that the Democratic organization did its best to deliver votes to Small and Crowe. The later returns indicate that while this effort was successful it was somewhat offset by the votes cast by less orthodox Democrats for Swanson and Emmerson.

America First to Carry On.
Ignoring one of the biggest phases of last Tuesday's battle, Mayor Thompson intends to snatch up his "America First" and "Draft Coolidge" banners from the wreckage of his ticket and nail them to the masthead.

The executive committee of the Thompson-Crowe organization, having counted noses and proved to its satisfaction that it can control the new county committee, have agreed to make Mayor Thompson chairman of the resolutions committee of the county convention next Monday. And Thompson wants it for the purpose of holding the very banners that went down to defeat.

Whether the effect of this move would be to pin the Thompsonite labels to some extent on the Republican state and county tickets next fall is uncertain since such a move will be fought by the Emmerson-Carlstrom-Glenn forces and by the Deneen group which won the places at the head of the county ticket. But the Thompson decision is considered of further significance as it is said to typify the attitude of the steering committee of the Thompson-Crowe organization. Other features of their plan include the reelection of Homer K. Gulpin as chairman and of Charles V. Barrett as treasurer, with B. W.

know replacing Robert Levy as vice chairman. If this means that the city hall and county building leaders propose that they manage the November campaign for the entire county ticket or for their part of it headed by John W. Jaramowski for recorder, it won't go down with the Deneen people.

Party Split Looms.

Under such circumstances they will put in a campaign manager of their own for Judge John A. Swanson and their other winners and it will be a difficult matter to prevent anything like a united Republican front toward the Democratic enemy.

The actuating motive of Chairman Gulpin and his associates is said to be that of continuing their control of patronage pool of their own offices rather than to increase the difficulties of the election battle or even to take any decided part in the state campaign such as attempting to prevent the election of Lowden DeLoach-at-large.

But it is estimated that the Chicago ward committeemen friendly to Lowden will name more than 300 Lowden delegates which, added to close to 1,500 for him from downstate, will offset any anti-Lowden delegates from downstate counties and give his friends control of the state meeting which, it has been roughly estimated, will include approximately 3,000 delegates.

Putting it in another way, it is believed that Chicago will be entitled to something more than 1,250 delegates. That the Lowden people will select nearly one-fourth of these and possibly more is due to the fact that where they won county committee places, the wards were big Republican wards.

Local reports are that Gov. Small will not oppose Lowden in the state convention against the backing of Emmerson and the other state ticket winners.

MELLON A PARTY KING; HIS POWER UNPARALLELED

Starts in Control of 200 Votes at Kansas City.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

(Chicago Tribune Staff Service.)

Philadelphia, Pa., April 12.—[Special.]—With all opposition crowded into submission by fear of his enormous power, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, having established despotic rule of the political stratum of Pennsylvania, is reaching forth for mastery of the Republican party and domination of the national government.

The venerable finance minister of the Coolidge administration, who is one of the three richest men in the world and possessor of a power a prince might envy, now looms as the king maker of the Republican national convention at Kansas City.

Expected to Name Candidate.

Mellon, who will be at Kansas City in person, is looked to by the eastern Republicans to name the Republican candidate for President. Furthermore, their expectation is that if the Republicans win the election Mellon will remain secretary of the treasury, but with an enhanced influence that will make him the dominating power behind the throne.

On April 24 seventy-nine delegates to the Republican national convention hand picked by the Mellon and allied Vane machines, will be elected in Pennsylvania virtually without opposition. They will go to Kansas City instructed for any candidate for President, but with tacit instructions they will not dare disobey to vote for the candidate Mellon desires.

Starts with 200 Votes.

But seventy-nine votes will not begin to measure the power of Mellon at Kansas City. Through the influence of the great contributors to Republican campaign funds and big business interests generally Mellon will have at his command close to fifty votes in the New York delegation and not less than thirty in New England, not to mention the colored bandwagon jumpers from the south and the blocs of western voters he can garner by disposing the domination for Vice President judiciously. Altogether Mellon has fair to control upwards of 100 votes in the convention, more than if of them in Pennsylvania and New York, and no Republican candidate for President can be nominated without votes of Pennsylvania and New York.

Control as Candidate by Age.

At Mellon, now in his seventy-first year, a decade younger, there is no doubt that he himself would be the contender for the nomination.

When Mellon rule practically imposed, there is not even the semblance of a primary election campaign in Pennsylvania this year. The Trustees are silent for the first time in decades. If you were to depend on the newspapers you would not know what candidates for national and state offices are to be chosen in less than a fortnight. Two years ago more than three million dollars was poured out in the primary in which Bill Vane was nominated for senator over Pepper and Pinchot, and candidates for governor and other state offices were there is no expectation that the name of Mellon will be presented to the convention, though it is not unlikely that his delegation will give the secretary a complimentary vote on the first ballot.

When Does He Favor?

There is much speculation on whom Mellon will attempt to nominate. It is known that his first choice is Charles Evans Hughes, who, however, has taken himself out of the reckoning quite as emphatically as has President Coolidge. Still, there are those who think Hughes might be drafted and that Mellon is intent on creating a situation favorable to drafting either Hughes or Coolidge.

Mellon has displayed antagonism to both Lowden and Dawes, and so far has been cool to the boom for Hoover. Mellon and Hoover have been incompatible members of the Coolidge official family. The Hooverites, however, are assiduously sporting Mellon. Pennsylvania is the only eastern state in which there is no Hoover campaign for delegates. There is not even a Hoover press agent here. Hoover was billed at one time to speak at Harrisburg, but the address was canceled. By no word or deed has Mellon been given ground for offense at the Hoover campaign.

Primary to Show His Power.

The vast power wielded by Mellon will be strikingly illustrated by the results of the Republican primary in Pennsylvania. Not only will a hand picked slate of delegates be elected, but United States Senator David A. Reed, head lawyer for the house of Mellon, will be renominated virtually without opposition. Mellon picked state officers will be nominated. It will remain to be seen whether a single anti-Mellon candidate for congressman can get by. One congressman who incurred the displeasure of the house of Mellon already has bitten the dust, and in only two districts have anti-Mellon candidates dared to give battle to the machine. Congressman McFadden is being opposed for renomination by Mrs. Gifford Pinchot, and Congressman Darrow by J. Hampton Moore, former mayor of Philadelphia.

So One Sided It's Looming.

With Mellon rule practically imposed, there is not even the semblance of a primary election campaign in Pennsylvania this year. The Trustees are silent for the first time in decades. If you were to depend on the newspapers you would not know what candidates for national and state offices are to be chosen in less than a fortnight. Two years ago more than three million dollars was poured out in the primary in which Bill Vane was nominated for senator over Pepper and Pinchot, and candidates for governor and other state offices were chosen. This time no money is being spent, for no money is needed.

The supremacy of Mellon is unparalleled in this or any other state. Compared with Mellon, Boss Quay and Boss Penrose were pikers. There are Republican leaders in this state today who did not hesitate to fight Penrose, but who shrink from rebellion against Mellon.

Sources of Mellon's Power.

And the reason is well understood among the politicians. It is this: The house of Mellon is a formidable money power. It is deep in oil, coal, railroads, public utilities, finance, and industry. It controls a myriad of corporations and banks, and exerts influence ramifying the whole structure of big business. On top of all that, Mellon himself is secretary of the treasury and one of the most powerful men in the country.

Business men are not hankering to share the fate of Senator Cousens, who assailed Mellon's administration of the income tax law and brought down upon himself a suit for ten million dollars in additional taxes on his profits from the sale of his interest in the Ford Motor Car company.

Senator Reed, who called the people of Pennsylvania "dunderheads" for nominating Vane in 1925, is bitterly unpopular. The substantial opponent of his renomination appeared.

How He Controls Vane.

One of the most influential Republican leaders in the state, who, though a member of the Old Guard, is chafing at Mellon domination, explained to friends that he could not make an anti-Mellon fight this year because the corporations with which he is affiliated feared Mellon.

The struggle held that Mellon has on Boss Bill Vane of Philadelphia and his organization arises from a different set of circumstances but no less potent. On account of his enormous primary campaign expenditures two years ago Vane refused the call by the senate, but his right to a seat is still pending decision. The senate is recounting the ballots to determine whether ballot box stuffing charges lodged against Vane are well founded. Vane needs the support and influence of Mellon and Senator David A. Reed if he is to get into the senate. There is no love lost between Vane and Mellon, but Vane must bow to the will of Mellon so long as the Vane case is pending in the senate. So, Vane is supporting Reed for renomination and presumably will echo Mellon's choice for President at Kansas City.

W. A. Bartlett, Realty Broker, Sued for Divorce.

William A. Bartlett, wealthy real estate broker, was sued for divorce yesterday by his second wife, Mrs. Violet C. Bartlett, whom he married in Florida three years ago. The bill, prepared by Attorney Harry A. Kahn, alleges excessive drinking and numerous acts of cruelty. Annual income of the defendant is listed at $100,000. The first Mrs. Bartlett won a decree in 1924.

DRAFT COOLIDGE STILL THE CRY OF NEW YORK G. O. P.

Norris Gets 11 in the Nebraska Primary.

New York, April 12.—[Special.]—"Draft Coolidge" seemed the sentiment of the majority of the members of the new Republican state committee which met today, organized and re-elected George K. Morris chairman.

Chairman Morris announced the abolition of the state executive committee of which Charles D. Hilles had been chairman, but denied that this indicated any split between himself and Mr. Hilles.

The strength of the Coolidge feeling was made evident by the applause which greeted former State Senator Nathaniel Bishop when he expressed hope that the President would run again. No other possibility for the Republican nomination was mentioned.

Norris Wins in Nebraska.

Omaha, Neb., April 12.—[Special.]—Progressive Republicans, led by Gov. Adam McMillen and aligned with United States Senator George W. Norris, will have eleven delegates at the Republican national convention. It was indicated tonight by returns from 1,610 of the state's 1,983 precincts in Tuesday's primary. The same returns made it appear that the forces headed by former Gov. McKelvie will be represented by six delegates, exclusive of the second district, where the delegates were not pledged to either slate.

The McKelvie forces are pledged to support Senator Norris for President as first choice and then, in order, Frank O. Lowden, Vice President Dawes, or any other middle western man who holds liberal views on farm relief.

Although the McKelvie delegates are not pledged to any individual, it is generally believed they favor Herbert Hoover.

Nominated for Congress.

Council Bluffs, Ia., April 12.—[Special.]—Vincent of Guthrie Center, county attorney of Guthrie county, tonight was nominated as Republican candidate in the election June 4 for the congressional seat of William H. Green, resigned. The Democratic nominee is William J. Burke, Missouri valley banker.

Lowden Gains Two.

Talequah, Okla., April 12.—[Special.]—Second Oklahoma district Republicans selected two delegates known to be favorable to Frank O. Lowden for the presidential nomination at their convention here today. They were uninstructed, however.

Counts 525 for Hoover.

Washington, D. C., April 12.—[Special.]—William H. Crocker, national Republican committeeman from California, asserted today that an incomplete national survey indicated Secretary Herbert Hoover would have a total of 525 votes on the first ballot at the national convention.

While 525 votes is twenty short of the number needed, Mr. Crocker expressed confidence that sufficient votes would swing to Hoover in the later balloting to insure his victory. Mr. Crocker made his predictions after a conference with President Coolidge at the White House.

PEPPER BACKS U. S. "JOB FUND" OF $75,000,000

Washington, D. C., April 12.—[Special.]—A plan to create a national prosperity fund was endorsed today by a number of witnesses appearing before the senate commerce committee, including former Senator George Wharton Pepper of Pennsylvania, who described it as sensible and practical.

The measure was offered by Senator Jones (Rep., Wash.). It would create a reserve to stabilize industry and employment by the expansion of public works when signs of danger appeared.

An appropriation of $75,000,000 would be authorized and when an unemployment crisis arose $50,000,000 would be thrown into river and harbor works, $10,000,000 into work of flood control, and $15,000,000 into public buildings outside the district of Columbia.

TRIAL FOR ARSON IS STARTED.

Herman L. Ehrlich, leather manufacturer, was placed on trial yesterday in Judge Otto Sear's criminal court charged with arson. It is charged that he was responsible for the fire which last December destroyed his stock and fixtures at 411 South Market street.

While 525 votes is twenty short of the number needed, Mr. Crocker expressed confidence that sufficient votes would swing to Hoover in the later balloting to insure his victory. Mr. Crocker made his predictions after a conference with President Coolidge at the White House.

POWER OF WARD COMMITTEEMEN FAVORS LOWDEN

Control of G. O. P. State Convention Indicated.

Importance of the new ward committeemen was realized fully yesterday when it was found that the anti-Thompson-Crowe forces apparently had elected enough members of the county central committee to insure control of the Republican state convention one week from today by the friends of Frank O. Lowden.

Under the new primary law, now in operation for the first time, each ward committeeman names the delegates to the state meeting from his ward, and the Thompson-Crowe slate was broken in a dozen spots as well as being smashed in the country towns.

Ward Vote Fixes Strength.
The number of delegates from the ward vote cast there in the primary. That vote also fixes the voting power of each committeeman in the county convention which meets Monday to elect officers and pass resolutions. The relative voting strengths of the various ward representatives, on the basis of the police returns is as follows:

In the Forty-third ward Arthur P. Albert insists that he defeated Al. Tim Haffa and that the only reason the unofficial returns don't show it is that the ballots were stolen by gunmen in the Twenty-eighth precinct, but that his margin there will show on the official count.

SEIZED AS FAKE POLICEMAN.
Joseph Block and Joseph Smith, of the Burbank hotel, were arrested yesterday on the public library. It is charged that they represented themselves as policemen and attempted to extort money from John Lofstrom, 641 Sedgwick street.

MESSAGES OF GOOD WILL KEEP SWANSON HOUSEHOLD ON RUN

More than 150 telegrams, nearly 500 letters, and innumerable telephone calls, the congratulatory greetings of his friends to Judge John A. Swanson, have inundated the Republican nominee for state attorney.

The telephone wires have carried such a heavy burden of calls into the Swanson home at 7217 Crandon avenue, that the telephone company has requested that two more wires be installed. "This would be no solution of the problem," Judge Swanson declared, "because it keeps us busy answering one phone."

"I am overwhelmed by these expressions of good will from my friends. If they will give me a liberal allowance of time, I shall attempt to express my gratitude to each of them individually."

CANAL POLICEMAN SEES A MURDER, SEIZES SLAYER

Sheffield avenue police last night were attempting to question Jack Stewart of 4539 North Racine avenue, who earlier, while intoxicated, shot and killed one John Linquist, address unknown.

Stewart was captured as he staggered away from the rear of 336 Fletcher street after firing six bullets into Linquist's body. He was seized by Joseph Burger, a sanitary district policeman, who witnessed the shooting from a nearby elevated platform.

STATE BANK OF CHICAGO IN NEW HOME MONDAY

By next Monday the State bank of Chicago will be settled in its new $15,000,000 building on the southwest corner of Monroe and La Salle streets.

Millions in cash and securities will be moved from the present location of the bank in the Chamber of Commerce building at Washington and La Salle streets, over the weekend, it was said.

Four floors and three basements of the new building will be occupied by the various departments of the bank, with the exception of quarters on the main bank floor which will be used by the Chicago Stock Exchange. The State bank of Chicago was incorporated thirty-seven years ago. Its present resources are $73,546,140.

Leroy A. Goddard is chairman of the bank's executive committee, and Henry A. Haugen is chairman of the board of directors. Vice presidents are C. Edward Carlson, Walter J. Cox, and Fred H. Carpenter.

TEACHER BEATEN; DE KALB POSSE HUNTS KIDNAPERS

More than a hundred residents of De Kalb, Ill., were searching the country roads yesterday for two men who kidnaped Miss Ruth McGoughy, 21, a school teacher, after robbing her escort of his watch and money late Wednesday.

Miss McGoughy and Carl Sandstrom of Spaxmore were in a parked automobile north of De Kalb when the men, armed with sawed-off shotguns, approached. Leaving Sandstrom on the roadside, they took the girl eight miles north, putting her out near Burlington. She was severely beaten in the struggle. Miss McGoughy is the daughter of Curtis McGoughy, a farmer of Earlville, Ill.

COLLECTOR CALLED KIDNAPER.
Harold Gordon, 25 years old, 7130 Yale avenue, was arrested yesterday on a charge of larceny by embezzlement. It is alleged that he collected money for his employer, a publisher, and converted it to his own use.

HARDWARE STOCK IS HARD LIQUOR, DRY RAIDERS FIND

Whisky, gin, and beer, comprised the stock in trade of the Hardware Specialty company in rooms 202-4 at 214 North State street when it was raided yesterday by prohibition agents. Three men were arrested in the place, which is over the Donatelli restaurant, recently raided.

Those arrested are Harry E. Wall, 5317 Kimbark avenue; David Dyer, 4061 South Park way, and Frank Hardy, holding a flat at 4154 South Halsted street dry agents arrested Cora Moore and Francis Sweeney.

Overnight Scotch of any name was in the process of manufacture when dry agents raided a store at 1847 South Kilde avenue. Fake straw coverings, strip stamps, and bottles were confiscated. Samuel Brooks and Leo Lutz were arrested.

FOUND DEAD IN HOTEL.
George Hamilton, 69 years old, was found dead yesterday in his room at the Great Northern hotel. Apparently he had died of heart disease.

THE PREACHERS AND PROHIBITION.

The report of a survey of Chicago newspapers and their attitude toward prohibition in news and editorial comment by a committee of the Chicago Methodist Preachers' association was made public Wednesday. It was intended for publication Monday but was withheld until after the primaries with the explanation that it might inject an issue not relevant to the election.

The survey was undertaken in January to cover three months of newspaper publication. It had its origin in a suggestion that the ministers assert their disapproval of the course of THE TRIBUNE by boycotting the patronage of services advertised in THE TRIBUNE. When this proposal had been more carefully considered it was seen to be not only one to suppress newspaper freedom and expression of opinion, but to violate a law. The purpose was then modified.

The committee finds that THE TRIBUNE'S editorial policy is wet and that it favors the repeal of the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act. It also charges that news of prohibition is so edited as to omit things favorable to prohibition and stress or distort things unfavorable.

When the ministers deferred the report until after the primaries we take it that they were in favor of what this paper was doing politically. Evidently the preachers and the newspaper have some purposes in common but do not go along together on prohibition. That is conspicuously true. THE TRIBUNE believes that national prohibition by constitutional amendment was a mistake and that the Volstead act is an indefensible instrument of enforcement. Sumptuary legislation regulating personal habit has no place in the constitution. The Volstead act overrides many principles supposed to be inherent in the American conception of government.

On these issues there could be political consideration and action without any reflection on the integrity of either proponents or opponents. In addition there is the political action organization of prohibition, the Anti-Saloon league, which THE TRIBUNE believes to be not only intolerant and dictatorial but guilty of many outrages in public life. It has collected great sums of money without accounting and has used its funds in many instances in support of officials and candidates whose acts were notoriously bad and whose purpose was the debasement of government.

It is possible that the Chicago preachers, without intimate contact with much political life, can be deceived as to character and purpose. We certainly do not believe that unless they were misled, either by lack of information or by an unquestioning enthusiasm, they would even indirectly aid maladministration, corruption in office or public misconduct. Presumably they are gratified by the primary results, but their attention may be called to the fact that the Anti-Saloon league has supported some of the principals in the ring which at last has been overthrown.

For years the league was favorable to Small and was willing to support him in control of the state and the legislature. It supported Smith when all the facts which cost him his seat in the senate were known. Prohibition has compromised with political misconduct in this state and in others. It worked with the Ohio gang. Harding's friends, Daugherty, Rorke, Jesse Smith, etc., were acceptable to it. It has given Indiana a black eye. Its influence in politics is vicious.

THE TRIBUNE'S editorial comment represents its convictions. It is printing the laws of prohibition which shows the corrupting effect on government and public life and morals. It shows the distortion of justice and humanity, as in the case of the Michigan lifer, Fred Palm, in prison for life for his third pint of gin, which was his fourth "felony," three of them pints of gin. It shows the outrages of federal prohibition agents against life and property and cherished individual rights. These excesses are inherent in such law.

The facts are necessary to political action. For abundant reasons THE TRIBUNE is opposed to prohibition as we have it today. It is a political question profoundly affecting American society. The opposition does not submit to having disrepute attached to it by the pulpit. THE TRIBUNE does not support disreputable wets. It has not carried that issue into the personnel of politics. The Anti-Saloon league has supported disreputable drys and rotten politicians who would pledge a dry vote for the privilege of being crooked at every opportunity with the sanction of a moralistic organization.

In questions of public and private life the preachers and THE TRIBUNE are generally in agreement except as to this one of national constitutional prohibition. These opinions will not be discarded because of theological disapproval. The ministers may combat them but they may not consider them something to be excused.

THE DEFEATED IMPROVEMENTS.

The municipal bond issues, all thirty-one of them, have been beaten by an indicated adverse vote of something like 2 to 1. The vote stands as a solid repudiation of the Chicago administration and its record. The voters of Chicago refused to trust Mayor Thompson, Mr. Fabery, and the city hall crowd with $78,000,000 of the taxpayers' money. It is the only instance in Chicago election history of such an improvement program being turned down wholesale.

We advocated rejection of the bond issues, despite our anxiety to see Chicago progress, principally because we believed that the men who made a deal to grab $4,800,000 and who actually did get away with $2,800,000 of a $26,500,000 bond issue could not safely be trusted to handle three times the amount. We also knew that the bond issues were padded; many were unnecessary; and a number of the projects had not been thoroughly investigated and planned out. The voters evidently felt the same way. They decided that essential bond issues, carefully thought out, could wait to be put on the ballot at the coming June, November, or February elections. And this is what should be done.

The verdict of the ballot ought to be made to prove a double benefit. It should teach the city hall a wholesome lesson about spending the people's money, and it should give time for those bond issues eventually submitted to be gone over and revised.

While we have nearly always supported the Chicago Plan commission and its projects, this fact should be kept in mind: The Chicago plan was formulated before the day of universal motor transportation. The original plan was based on the one-level street and intersection, but the time is here when a one-level street with grade crossings is out of date. It is slow, unsafe, and inadequate. The plan commission has managed to go ahead with the times in planning certain improvements—such as Wacker drive and Avondale avenue. But what is needed, we suggest, is a pause, a stock taking, a revision of all pending plans, with a determination that two level streets with separated grades at the crossings shall be constructed hereafter.

Before another submission, all—not just a few—of the street projects should be approved by the plan commission, with double decking and crossing separation the real test of merit.

RUSSIA'S MODERN IMPERIAL GUARD.

What Russia means by complete disarmament when it made its recent proposal at Geneva has not been precisely explained. No one, in fact, has yet been able to concoct a satisfactory formula for disarmament which would take due account of those other factors beside the ostensible military factors which go to make a country pacific or warlike and fit or unfit for conflict.

This much, however, is certain. Russia might disarm its army, but it would never abolish the armed forces of the cheka. The cheka is the imperial guard of bolshevism. As the old corps de garde enjoyed certain privileges, so does the cheka enjoy special privileges and immunities today. By force of the cheka the Russian soviet dictatorship is in the saddle. Without the cheka the dictatorship faces overthrow and extinction.

The old imperial guard saved out of the Russo-Japanese war prevented the demonstrations of 1905 from growing into a revolution. The sacrifice of the imperial guard at Warsaw in the world war enabled the uprisings of 1917 to flower into rebellion. Similarly in Germany, had it been possible to save some portion of the Prussian guard from destruction at the front, it might have been possible for the imperial government to have protected itself in power.

The Russian proffer of disarmament is but a gesture, absurd when one compares the potential strength of Russia with the strength of lesser nations. Impertinent when one considers the Russian invasion of other countries with its monied propaganda for militant revolution, and meaningless on its face unless Russia disarms the cheka which the soviet government cannot do with safety to itself.

Editorial of the Day

WHITHER BOUND, DEMOCRATS!

[Greenboro (N. C.) Daily Record.]

In a few weeks the representatives of the Democratic party will assemble at Houston to nominate a candidate for the presidency. Before that time there must be some agreement between the factions of the party or it again will be consumed by the fire from within, as in 1924—the fire fed by differences of opinion over religion and prohibition.

There are within the party four distinct groups, and no one of the four is willing to concede anything. There is a strong Catholic group and a strong anti-Catholic group. There is a strong dry group and a strong wet group. There is apparently no way in which these four groups may be merged, for there are many of the Catholic group in both the wet and dry groups and many of the anti-Catholic group in the wet and dry groups. If there is no compromise the 1924 debacle will be repeated and the Democratic party again will be the laughingstock of the country. And another Republican will be swept into office by voters who appear to prefer corruption to intolerance and bigotry.

The Democratic party was almost crucified in 1924 on the twin altars of Protestantism and Prohibition. It is in a fair way to be crucified this year on the same altars, and there is little doubt that what is left of the party if 1924 is repeated will hardly be worth salvaging.

It is time for Democratic leaders to come forward with a substitute candidate. It is not enough to declare against Smith. That is a negative policy and the time has come when a positive policy is a vital necessity.

Whither bound, Democrats? The question must be answered today or at Houston. To answer it now may be to save, to answer it at Houston may be to ruin.

OLD, BUT GREEN.

Chauncy M. Depew, at a reception in his New York home, criticized a June-December marriage after his usual crisp fashion.

"Old John Bullion is a healthy chap," a banker had observed. "He'll live to a green old age, old John will."

"Humph. He's reached it already," said Mr. Depew. "I met him downtown last week, and he told me he just married a chorus girl 43 years his junior who loved him for himself alone."—Pittsburgh Courier.

MAYBE PLUMBERS!

The fire brigade of a European village dashed into the village inn and the chief fireman said:

"Beer and sandwiches all around, please, and hustle on our way to a big fire."—Pittsburgh Courier Telegram.

TOBACCO ANGINA.

THE use of tobacco can cause angina pectoris, or a disorder with all the earmarks of that serious, painful affliction. Such is the opinion of Dr. E. Moscovitz. The doctor reports three cases of tobacco angina seen by him, one a doctor, another a merchant, and a third a lawyer. Some of his opinions on the subject are:

1. Tobacco may cause symptoms resembling angina.
2. The variety of tobacco used makes no difference.
3. The pain is worse and lasts longer than true angina.
4. After a person has had one attack he may be very sensitive to tobacco.
5. It is not enough for a man with tobacco angina to limit his dose—he must swear off completely.
6. The pains do not stop for some weeks after the use of the weed has stopped. Time is required to get the tobacco out of the system.
7. The variety of tobacco used makes no difference.
8. The pain is worse and lasts longer than true angina.
9. After a person has had one attack he may be very sensitive to tobacco.
10. It is not enough for a man with tobacco angina to limit his dose—he must swear off completely.
11. The pains do not stop for some weeks after the use of the weed has stopped. Time is required to get the tobacco out of the system.

Armstrong found one per cent carbon monoxide in cigarette smoke and 8 per cent in a quickly smoked cigar. Rolloston found that pipe smoke contained most nicotine, cigar smoke next, and cigarette smoke least. The bottom tobacco in the pipe and the tip end of a cigar or cigarette supply the heaviest charge of nicotine. Smoking down to the bottom or end is a bad practice.

The harm done by smoking depends on whether the smoke is inhaled, whether the tobacco is burned fast or slow, and whether the weed is turned to the end. A well cured tobacco is less harmful than is a green leaf product.

All of this is found in a recent number of the Journal of the American Medical Association. The same number of the same journal has an article on lead poisoning due to the use of snuff. This is one of a series of lead poisoning tests made by Dr. Baur and Mr. Hopes in Boston. They report the case of a man who used snuff and who suffered from a moderately severe lead poisoning. Analysis of the snuff that he used showed the presence of considerable lead. It appears that lead poisoning due to the use of snuff has been recognized for 150 years. In former times it was more frequently encountered than it now is. The custom of adulterating snuff with lead has been pretty well discontinued. In present day practice, when lead gets into snuff it gets there from the metal foil in which the snuff is wrapped, or which is used to cover the cork. Sometimes the snuff is put up in tin containers. The poisoning of the snuff with lead is accidental rather than intentional.

SILK UNDIENES AND NEUTRITIS.
L. A. R. writes: We have been told that silk underwear is a preventive of neuritis.

Kindly express your opinion on this.

I do not agree.

DIET FOR ACIDOSIS.

Mrs. M. E. L. writes: My 10 year old girl has acid stomach which gives her sick headaches.

Please tell me what to give her for the acid.

What causes so much acid?

Should I diet her?

REPLY.

My guess is that your child is subject to attacks of acidosis.

As a rule, the acidosis which children are subject to results from wrong habits and especially wrong diet.

Such children should have more hard candy, more ice cream, sugar, potatoes, vegetables, fruits, and fruit juices, and less cereals, bread, and meat.

They should play harder games and be more in the open air.

UNSATISFACTORY HEATING SYSTEM.

Chicago, April 7.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—Last fall we had a hot water boiler put in our home and according to the contract we should have a temperature of seventy degrees in each room if the temperature outside is below zero. This winter it was so cold in the kitchen and dining room that we called the man who installed the boiler and asked him to put in larger radiators than he had put in originally. He said he would if we paid him.

He made my mother sign notes while we boys were not at home. Could we stop payment on his notes at the bank?

S. A.

We see no reason why the contract should not be enforceable.

The facts are not clear enough for us to advise upon them.

If the bank purchased the notes for value before maturity and without notice of the defense and if the notes are so worded as to be negotiable then the breach of the guarantee would not be a defense to an action on the notes.

TRIBUTE LAW DEPARTMENT.

TWO YEARS GRACE.

Chicago, April 8.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—I have two [1] lots in a township of Cook county, and on account of sickness I have been unable to pay my special assessments of the years 1932 and 1933. I will you please tell me how long they give you to redeem them?

In case of selling the lots by the courts, do I lose the title and deeds to the property? Can I collect anything on the sale above the costs of taxes. J. H.

1. If not redeemed within two years from the date of the sale a tax deed will issue, which is a serious cloud on the title.

2. Depends on the nature of the proceedings under which the property is sold.

TRIBUTE LAW DEPARTMENT.

OPEN RECORDS.

Chicago, April 7.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—Is the city tax collector compelled to show their assessment books to a taxpayer?

J. M. A.

The city does not handle our general taxes. If you refer to special assessments, the rolls, showing the amount charged against each parcel of property, can be examined in the office of the clerk of the court.

The late Marvin Hughtitt, railroad pioneer, left an estate of approximately $3,000,000, invested chiefly in broad bonds, tax exempt city, state and Federal bonds, and stocks, now being inventoried by Judge Martin before Probate Judge John C. Miller in Waukegan, Ill.

Mr. Hughtitt, a telegraph operator during part of the civil war, rose to the position of chief clerk of the great Western Union telegraph system. He left only one son, Marvin, and a daughter, and no investment and that for only $100. The inventory lists 35 shares of Pullman Publishing company capital stock, valued at $100,000, and "one share of the same," to be "liquidated."

Marvin Hughtitt, who died Jan. 1, 1910, at the age of 70, bequeathed the bulk of his fortune to his three children. They are Marvin Hughtitt Jr. of Bourbonnais, Ill.; Mrs. Mary Hughtitt Frost of Chicago, Ill.; and Miss Belle Hughtitt, manager, also of Lake Forest. The daughters are the wives of architects.

BERLIN, April 12.—The rocket ship designed by Jules Verne and planned actually to fly at different times last year by Prof. H. Goddard of America who wanted to shoot at the moon, has been built and will be launched today.
It was accomplished fast in Munich today.
Built last yesterday on the shipyard's automobile of the Opel company, reaching a speed of one second a speed of 4 miles, or about 600 feet.

A more powerful larger model now is under construction and will be tried next month. An aggressive action of the German government has the drawback of which drives aircraft forms the motive force, the fuel is a special kind of powder.

A private firm, the Opel company, invented the process, while an engineer Herr Sandner, constructed the car for the Opel company.

The feature of the new car is steadily increasing speed as long it runs. The constructors are confident that on a sufficiently long run it will break the speed record now held by the English.

With the filing of the inventory, the attorneys for the estate, Weymouth Kirkland and W. Ayers Keplingers made known that Capt. James

Capt. Hough, 38 years old and residing in a rooming house in Omaha, Neb., was bequeathed a trust fund of $50,000. He was quoted as scorning the bequest, calling it a "dirty trick." He was a fellow telegraph operator with Mr. Houghitt over a half century ago and in 1914 he retired on a pension of $45 a month from the railroad and $90 a month from the government.

Decides Against Contest.

"Capt. Hough repudiated the published interviews," Attorney Keplinger said, "and denied he contemplated a contest of the will."

The railroad bonds held by Mr. Hughtill, who was head of the Chicago and North Western system for thirty-eight years, are listed in the inventory as follows:

Santa Fe	$50,000
Chesapeake and Ohio	50,000

Washington, D. C., April 12.—(AP)—
Declaring that the recent letter of President Coolidge to Gov. Townier of Porto Rico relative to the island's independence was humiliating to the people of that country, Delegate Davila
today told the house that his people
"would prefer less love for Porto Rico and more love for the liberty and hap-

pinions of its inhabitants."

Darwin drew from the letter of President Coolidge an inference that "we have done nothing but receive favors from the American people and are highly ungrateful when we express our complaints and come to Washington in quest of greater liberties for the island."

"We are not pretending to demand the benefits which Porto Rico has received during the American administration," he continued, "but an attempt has been made to deal with our conditions from a point of charity."

FIFTEEN KILLED BY BOMB MEANT FOR ITALIAN KING

Women, Children Victims of Milan Outrage.

the king pass. Soldiers were lined about a third of the arc.

Bursting of Bomb.

The parade had just passed the Fiat auto factory and its head turned from the street into the semi-circular piazza when the bomb burst, followed by the tumult and panic after the first shock.

A great crater was cut in the ground; telephone poles were shattered; buildings were rocked, and windows were blown everywhere. Above the tumult rose the cries of the wounded and dying, lying writhing in agony on the ground, some with scores of iron and wood splinters imbedded in their bodies. All ran everywhere for safety.

King Visits Wounded.

Meanwhile, the king had reached the exposition ground and from there heard the explosion. He asked when he learned what he had escaped, but insisted that the ceremony of inauguration continue. As soon as it was finished, he visited the hospitals to see the wounded. The king then returned to the royal palace, but after lunch said the whole day's program must be carried out. So he went to inaugurate the new medical institute for minor, and later gave a reception at the royal palace. Only the opera performance tonight in the Scala was closed, as a sign of mourning.

Horror is expressed throughout Italy at the deed and the Fascist press suggests that the perpetrators, when found, should be immediately hanged in the piazza where the bomb exploded.

The official paper, Tribuna, charges that the attempt was the work of Fascist enemies among anarchists and international free masons. That the attempt was the direct work of anarchists is the general opinion, but it is believed they were only the tools of a widespread anti-Fascist plot aimed at derailing the regime.

The postmaster of Milan tonight offered a reward of 100,000 lire ($5,280) to any one giving evidence against the criminals. A large sum already has been put at the disposal of the postmaster for relief for the victims.

Coolidge Sends Sympathy. Washington, D. C., April 12.—(AP)—President Coolidge extended to the king of Italy today his sympathy upon the loss of life at the Milan fair, caused by an explosion just prior to the king's visit. He added that he wished to assure the king of his relief at his majesty's escape.

Canada May Nationalize All Broadcasting Stations.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.) OTTAWA, Ont., April 12.—Canada may nationalize and operate as a government venture all its radio broadcasting operations. Pierre Cardin, minister, today said the government was considering such a move because of the limited number of wave lengths available for the multitude of applicants.

SINCLAIR LEWIS' OWN 'MAIN ST.' INVADED BY TRIUMPHANT ROTARY

Superior, Wis., April 12.—(AP)—Rotary reached the original "Main Street" today when the Sauk Center, Minn., Rotary club held its first meeting. Sauk Center is the home town of Sinclair Lewis, in whose writings rotary clubs have often been criticized. The club was sent a telegram of congratulation from the Ninth district conference headquarters here and invited to the district conference, May 3 and 4, "in spite of Main Street."

Canoe Beats Railroad Train in Race on Flooded Track

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.) ORILLIA, Ont., April 12.—A canoe won a race with a locomotive today. Chief Big Wind, head of the Rama Indian reserve, calmly paddled his canoe up the center of the railway tracks ahead of the North Bay express. Passengers cheered the old man as he turned off the track at the Rama reserve. He had kept in front of the locomotive all the way from Longford Mills, a distance of over a mile. The track was flooded with eight inches of water.

WAR CHIEF WILL ANSWER CHARGE OF COWARDICE

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.) TORONTO, Ont., April 12.—Sir Arthur Currie, Canada's wartime commander, lost the first round of the second battle of Mons today at Cobourg when Judge L. V. O'Connor ruled that he must answer questions asked by the defense in the preliminaries to his $50,000 libel action. The defense wants Currie to state whether he hid in a dugout during the battle of St. Julien and allowed a namesake, Col. Jack Currie, to be sent back home on the count of alleged cowardice. Sir Arthur will answer Saturday. The wartime commander must also answer if, while he was colonel of the Gordon Highlanders of Victoria, he received from the government $30,000 to purchase uniforms. The libel action follows the written charge of W. T. R. Preston that Canadians were slaughtered on Armistice day for the glorification of the general staff. Hearing of the case proper starts next Tuesday.

COURT ORDERS BOARD TO TAKE BACK TEACHERS

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.) Reinstatement in active service of ten school principals and twelve teachers, retired from the school system by the emeritus rule of the board of education, was ordered yesterday in a mandate entered by Judge Scanlan, Barnes, and Gridley in the Appellate court. The mandate directs that relief be granted the retired teachers in accordance with the ruling of the Appellate court on Feb. 14. That ruling held that the emeritus rule, which automatically retired all teachers who reached the age of 70, was invalid. The board of education, the defendant in the teachers' suit, will be served with notice of the mandate. On April 21 attorneys William J. Corboy and Allan Carter, who represent the teachers, will appear before Judge Hugo Friend and ask an immediate rehearing of the case. The board of education attorneys may file an appeal from the ruling of the Appellate court any time before May 15.

ELIZABETH ARDEN IS IN CHICAGO NOW
APRIL 12th, 13th and 14th

I've met her—and want you to meet her too

I've read of her, heard her discussed by "beauty editors," followed her about Europe, just missed her at the laboratory of a great consulting chemist of France. I had begun to believe she wasn't real. I pictured her hiding in an oracle's cave, from whence poured forth wise commands, commands that women took to themselves—and became lovely!

But now I know that Elizabeth Arden is real, a vivacious flesh and blood person, who must practice all the precepts that she preaches, for she embodies all the charm that she promises to others.

And I found her, not in a cave—indeed no—but in the loveliest sort of a setting in her smart Chicago Salon at 70 East Walton Place. I was shocked by the audacious youth of her! One cannot be so famous in one's teens, and yet she might still be a slip of a girl. What conviction one look of her would carry to every woman in the world!

She talked of her work, and her enthusiasm bubbled over. For years, she has spent every hour of her day in her Salons, giving advice to her clients on their individual needs in the laboratory, supervising the making of her wonderful Venetian Preparations, modifying formulas, testing ingredients, experimenting, working in the office, directing the work of her Home Course, answering the letters of women all over the country who look to her for advice on their problems of personal loveliness.

She talked familiarly of what the ancients knew of the skin and of cosmetics, and what French doctors know today of the startling gland operation of the old method of "peeling" the face. And then she told me the very thing I had been wanting most of all to hear about the story of her wonderful new Vienna Youth Mask! If you have not already heard of it before, you should know that this wonderful treatment is bringing about natural rejuvenation in a most extraordinary and perfectly healthful way.

There is not room to tell about it here, but do come in to meet Miss Arden and ask her to tell you about The Mask herself as well as all the other fascinating treatments she has perfected—for she is here in Chicago now for just that purpose—to help you personally. If you are interested in having a really lovely face and figure, if you want your skin to be clear and bright, Miss Arden will be glad to advise you. For an appointment please telephone—the number is Superior 0952.

Elizabeth Arden's Venetian Toilet Preparations are on sale at the smart shops everywhere.

APRIL 12th, 13th and 14th

I've met her—and want you to meet her too

I've read of her, heard her discussed by "beauty editors," followed her about Europe, just missed her at the laboratory of a great consulting chemist of France. I had begun to believe she wasn't real. I pictured her hiding in an oracle's cave, from whence poured forth wise commands, commands that women took to themselves—and became lovely!

But now I know that Elizabeth Arden is real, a vivacious flesh and blood person, who must practice all the precepts that she preaches, for she embodies all the charm that she promises to others.

And I found her, not in a cave—indeed no—but in the loveliest sort of a setting in her smart Chicago Salon at 70 East Walton Place. I was shocked by the audacious youth of her! One cannot be so famous in one's teens, and yet she might still be a slip of a girl. What conviction one look of her would carry to every woman in the world!

She talked of her work, and her enthusiasm bubbled over. For years, she has spent every hour of her day in her Salons, giving advice to her clients on their individual needs in the laboratory, supervising the making of her wonderful Venetian Preparations, modifying formulas, testing ingredients, experimenting, working in the office, directing the work of her Home Course, answering the letters of women all over the country who look to her for advice on their problems of personal loveliness.

She talked familiarly of what the ancients knew of the skin and of cosmetics, and what French doctors know today of the startling gland operation of the old method of "peeling" the face. And then she told me the very thing I had been wanting most of all to hear about the story of her wonderful new Vienna Youth Mask! If you have not already heard of it before, you should know that this wonderful treatment is bringing about natural rejuvenation in a most extraordinary and perfectly healthful way.

There is not room to tell about it here, but do come in to meet Miss Arden and ask her to tell you about The Mask herself as well as all the other fascinating treatments she has perfected—for she is here in Chicago now for just that purpose—to help you personally. If you are interested in having a really lovely face and figure, if you want your skin to be clear and bright, Miss Arden will be glad to advise you. For an appointment please telephone—the number is Superior 0952.

Elizabeth Arden's Venetian Toilet Preparations are on sale at the smart shops everywhere.

ANDREW HOME FROM TOUR FOR AMERICA FIRST

Explains Mission Is to Teach Good Citizenship.

Evil may have been put down in Chicago and virtue rewarded, and Mayor Thompson may have been triumphed over everything save his campaign hat and a handful of ward committeemen, but William McAndrew, who Thompson ousted from the school superintendency, will not rub salt into the wound of the America Firsters' defeat.

Nor will he gloat over the moral triumph that some claimed for him in the defeat of Thompson. He said as much yesterday when he stepped from a Northwestern train arriving here from the Pacific coast where he has been lecturing.

"I have no news, no comments on the election, and nothing to say about Mayor Thompson," he told his interviewer as he left the train. "But come on, you can walk to a cab with me, anyway." And he proceeded through the station punctuating his sentences by swatting the reporter in the thigh with a small bag of books he carried in one hand. They were history books, he said.

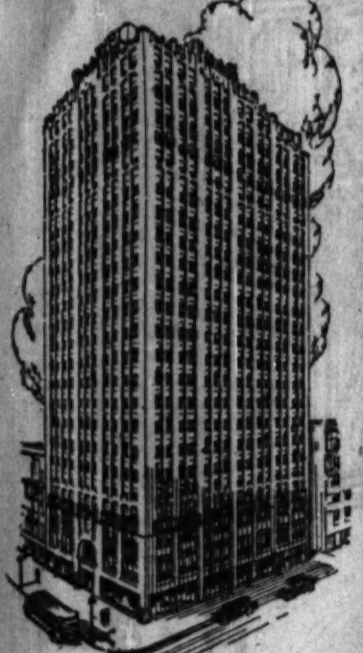

Spreads America First Gospel. "I've been out spreading the gospel of America First," he said. "The real America first which is citizenship. Reporters meet me at every railroad station and ask me: 'What do you think about Big Bill?' I tell them that I don't."

About his $250,000 libel suit against Mayor Thompson, filed yesterday in superior court, Mr. McAndrew was more explicit. "I don't care a red about the $250,000, but I do hope to accomplish something for the protection of my profession," he said. "It is an age old trick of the politician to attack the school master. He thinks that he can say anything he chooses to the educator without risking so much as a puppy. In this suit I am seeking to find out if a judicial body cannot establish that the position of an educator is as worthy of respect as, say, a public utilities magistrate." The bag of books landed in the reporter's ribs.

Hears of Coercion. "In my trips about the country I have heard many times that school teachers have been coerced into testifying that my administration of the schools was tyrannical," he said. "The news that Coath has established a dummy construction company in order to swing the big school contracts to his son, has spread rapidly, too."

HELD TO GRAND JURY. Daniel Dromisk, 31, of 2820 South Wells street, was held to the grand jury by Municipal Judge John Richardson in Grand Criminal court yesterday on a statutory charge preferred by Miss Anna Stone, 18, of 6841 Indiana avenue. Dromisk's bonds were fixed at $5,000.

CHICAGO AVENUE AT LAKE STREET

ON MICHIGAN AVENUE

A business home on Michigan Avenue offers much more than an address of distinction.

Michigan Avenue means better daylight, cleaner air, freedom from noise and congestion.

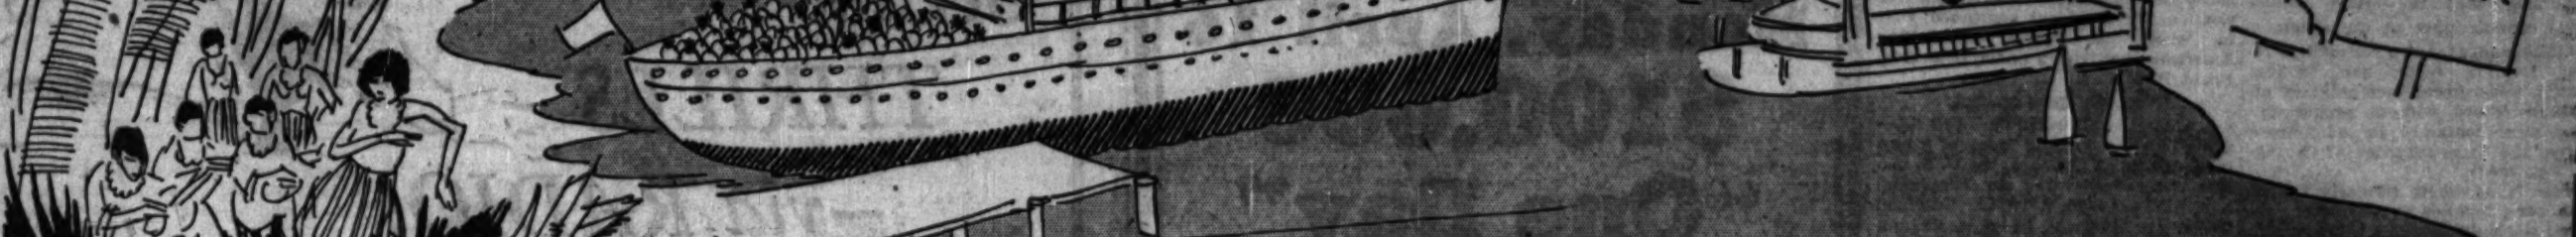

The Lake Michigan Building combines these advantages with office space of the highest character, an exceptionally accessible location, and rentals that are moderate.

Our representative in the building will be glad to show you the available space or to call at your office at your convenience.

HAWAIIAN WEEK!

From April 13th to April 21st

Almost the first thing you hear from your friends who return from the Hawaiian Islands is the story of the deliciously flavored Jams and Jellies made from rich tropical fruits such as Guavas, Poha Berries, Papayas and Pineapples.

Now you may serve these tropical delicacies in your own home. Introduce them to your friends at your next tea.

"MOANA" Brand Hawaiian Preserves

NECTAR MARMALADE

The Nectar of the Gods from that fascinating Paradise—HAWAII. Everyone who tastes this delicious Moana Nectar Marmalade is instantly won by the piquant and mellow flavor of the famous golden papayas and the native Hawaiian fragrant ginger.

A SUGGESTION
Try Moana Nectar Marmalade on toast at breakfast time, or in a cup of tea or coffee. It makes a delightful filling for tarts and layer cakes.

Large Jar (12 1/2 oz.) 35c
3 Jars for 99c

PINEAPPLE JAM

Made right at the plantation where pineapples grow. Moana Pineapple Jam is prepared from choice, sun-ripened pineapples immediately after they are brought in from the fields. This every bit of the delicious flavor and juice of the fresh fruit is retained in this tropical jam.

A SUGGESTION
Use a dash in your next fruit cocktail, or have it on the table at breakfast. Moana Pineapple Jam makes a wonderful dessert when used in pies and tarts.

Large Jar (12 1/2 oz.) 35c
3 Jars for 99c

GUAVA JELLY AND JAM

Two famous Hawaiian delicacies. Prepared from Hawaiian Guava, which looks and grows much like a lemon. The inside of the ripe fruit is salmon pink, but after it is cooked it turns to this delightful rich red color.

Moana Guava Jelly has a surprisingly intriguing richness and novelty of flavor—a tart taste all its own. Abundant in flavor and most tender in texture—Guava Jelly makes a most delicious spread for toast or crackers.

A SUGGESTION
Try a Moana Guava Jelly made with equal parts of Guava Jelly and Jam, serve it with cottage cheese or cream cheese, and you will have a most delicious and unique salad. It is a wonderful conserve for hot or cold meat and food.

Large Jar (12 1/2 oz.) 35c
3 Jars for 99c

POHA BERRY JAM

The enchanting delight of all Hawaiian fruit carried to your table. Moana Poha Berry Jam is a distinctive novelty, deliciously tart and appetizing. It is made from the celebrated Hawaiian poha berry, which grows on low bushes, found only on the rim of Kilauea Volcano.

Something new to serve. Original in flavor and a jam that will appeal to every member of the family.

A SUGGESTION
Try Moana Poha Berry Jam as a pie-filling or for layer cakes and tarts. After you have tried your cake, use a dash of Poha Berry Jam as a finishing touch. Or, when serving ice cream, try a Poha Berry sauce.

Large Jar (12 1/2 oz.) 40c

THREE OFFICIALS ARE INDICTED AS DRY GRAFTERS

U. S. Commissioner in Kentucky Named.

Cincinnati, O., April 12.—[Special.]—Charges that the former United States commissioner at Covington, a prohibition agent, and a constable, who aided him in raids, had profited through government fees obtained on warrants issued without proper evidence were contained in indictments against the three returned at Covington, Ky., today.

Oscar H. Roetken, formerly United States commissioner at Covington, resigned suddenly about three weeks ago and his resignation was followed a few days later by that of Oscar B. Wells, federal prohibition agent. William Tressler, constable of Campbell county, Ky., the third man mentioned in the federal grand jury's indictment, worked with Wells in conducting liquor raids.

Fees Run Into Hundreds.
Fees for warrants issued by the United States commissioner for violations of the federal prohibition law range from $12 to $50. The indictments do not specify the amount of money obtained by the three, but it is believed to run into hundreds of dollars.

Million in Shakedown.
New York, April 12.—[AP.]—Five alleged members of a gang of 15 men who are accused of having garnered a million dollars in "shakedowns" while posing as prohibition officers throughout the country, were arrested today.

While three unidentified suspects were lodged in Tombs prison, federal authorities took into custody Robert Cowles of Brooklyn, Thomas Burke, William Connolly, James Williams and Frank Burns, whom officials said excited large sums from hotels, cabarets, roadhouses, and similar establishments under threat of prosecution for violation of the prohibition law.

DIAZ URGES HIS PARTY TO UPHOLD U. S. IN NICARAGUA

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
MANAGUA, Nicaragua, April 12.—Adolfo Diaz, president of Nicaragua and leader of the Conservative party, tonight urged the party to continue cooperation with the American policy here. He asked them to nominate Dr. Carlos Cuadra Pasos for the next president in order to insure friendly relations between Nicaragua and the United States.

The president's declaration, aligning himself publicly with the Cuadra Pasos group, which is fighting Gen. Emiliano Chamorro for control of the party, caused a pronounced stir in political circles.

It was in order to fulfill the promise to the Nicaraguan people of a free election, the president continued, that he issued the decree establishing American supervision under Brig. Gen. Frank R. McCoy.

New Air Base Opened.
MANAGUA, Nicaragua, April 12.—[AP.]—With the opening today of a new landing field at Condega, the U. S. marine forces operating in Nicaragua have nine bases for aviation. The land troops are disposed in 48 posts and twenty-five patrols are operating daily through the northern area.

DANDRUFF

A Sure Way to End It

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it; then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid Arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

ILLINOIS CANAL PROJECT O. K.'D BY COMMITTEE

Washington, D. C., April 12.—[AP.]—The Illinois and Mississippi canal project, to provide federal aid in the maintenance of the Mud Creek drainage district in Illinois, was approved today by the house rivers and harbors committee.

The project carries the authorization for the appropriation of $5,480,750 to aid in carrying on the work of the drainage district which, Maj. Gen. Edgar Jadwin, chief of army engineers, said had reduced work of the government in maintaining an adequate channel under the Illinois and Mississippi canal for the Mud creek waters.

FAMILY THWARTS PRINCE'S WEDDING TO AMERICAN GIRL

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
LONDON, April 12.—Although the much discussed wedding of Marguerite Watson of Washington and Prince Charles Philippe d'Orleans, son of the duchess of Vendome, which was scheduled to take place today in London, apparently was postponed due to the bride's illness. It is reported that the nuptials actually were prevented by the prince's family, which is violently opposed to the match.

It is understood the ceremony was called off at the last minute due to the withholding of the episcopal dispensation for which the prince applied, enabling him to marry a Protestant.

Doing One Thing Well —Saves You 20% to 30% on Tire Costs

TIRES! We're tire specialists. The only thing we claim to know about is tires. So we don't make or sell shoes, mowing machines, athletic underwear, or anything else! Just tires!

And sticking to our job—making and selling tires—we worked out a way to sell them 20% to 30% less than first quality tires were ever sold before. We established Inland Sales Depots—our own. Now we sell to you direct. No dealers; no jobbers. Only the factory and yourself in the transaction. It saves you $4.00 to $10.00 a tire.

Of course we guarantee Inlands, for the first 12,000 and 15,000 miles. That's only a beginning. Inlands will deliver double their guarantee. When you buy an Inland you buy a tire manufactured, sold, guaranteed and serviced by tire specialists. We have nothing to gain, and everything to lose if you are not a satisfied customer—the kind that comes back and buys again. Over 75% of Inland customers do come back.

An Inland for Every Car and a Saving on Every Inland
These few sizes and types of tires illustrate the saving you can get on Inlands. Remember these are all honestly, ruggedly built first grade tires. All sizes not listed are on sale at proportionate low prices. Before you buy, get the Inland price on your size tire. Tires delivered anywhere—delivery charges prepaid.

SINCLAIR RIVALS TELL HOW FALL AND TEAPOT DEAL

Deceived and Misled, Say
Other Bidders.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., April 12.—(Special.)—Members of congress and half a dozen rival bidders for the Teapot oil reserve lease, testifying before the oil conspiracy jury today, alleged instances of secrecy, subterfuge, and deceit practiced by Albert F. Fall, former secretary of the interior, throughout his negotiations with Harry F. Sinclair.

On the very day—April 7, 1922—that the reserve was turned over to Sinclair, bureau chiefs in the interior department, acting under instructions from Fall, denied to Senator J. B. Kendrick (Dem., Wyo.), according to his testimony this morning, that the reserve had been leased or that its lease was contemplated.

Two weeks later, Frank W. Mondell, then Republican leader in the house, stated the interior department in behalf of some constituents, he declared, and talked with E. C. Finney, assistant secretary, who did not mention the Sinclair lease and asserted the "Teapot" matter is being considered personally by Fall.

Shaffer on Stand.
Among Sinclair's disappointed rivals called to tell how their long standing applications for drilling rights in the Teapot reserve were ignored by Fall in favor of Sinclair, was John C. Shaffer, publisher of the Chicago Evening Post, who at the time was owner of the Maryland Oil company, operating on the edge of the Teapot reserve in the so-called Salt Creek field.

Shaffer told how he protested in person to Fall against the Sinclair lease and was advised by the cabinet member to see Sinclair who, in the words of Fall, was "a very fair man and will treat you fairly." Shaffer did see Sinclair and after some discussion the oil magnate agreed to let him have 400 acres within the reserve. The agreement, however, was never carried out, according to Shaffer. The Chicago publisher asserted that more than a year before Sinclair was given the Teapot lease an application for drilling rights in the reserve had been made by the Maryland Oil company to Secretaries Denby and Fall. Shaffer declared today that he believed his expenditure of $115,000 in sinking wells justified him in asking for a lease on 600 acres of the reserve.

Fall Procures Help.
Secretary Denby advised him, Shaffer continued, that control over naval

LEVINE SETTLES ARMY $500,000 WAR SUPPLY SUIT FOR $150,000

Washington, D. C., April 12.—(Special.)—A compromise settlement for $150,000 has been accepted by the government in the $500,000 suit against Charles A. Levine, the trans-Atlantic flyer, over war material contracts.

The department of justice has received Levine's check for the compromise sum.

The action arose over an agreement by Levine after the world war to take over a quantity of surplus materials from the war department to sell on a percentage basis. The army charged that Levine owed approximately half a million dollars more than he had turned in.

oil reserves had passed, under an executive order issued by President Harding, to the interior department, and accordingly, Shaffer testified, he came to Washington in the latter part of 1921, to see Secretary Fall.

"He told me," asserted Shaffer, "that the department was not then contemplating opening up the Teapot reserve, but he assured me that if and when the department's policy changed, my application would receive special consideration."

Early in 1922 Shaffer heard that Sinclair and Fall had practically completed negotiations for a lease to cover the entire Teapot reserve. Coming to Washington on March 23, 1922, Shaffer confronted Fall with the rumor.

"Fall told me he had leased the Teapot Dome to Sinclair," declared Shaffer, "and he said he had requested Sinclair to set aside 300 acres for me. I protested that I had asked for 600 acres, and he told me to go and

Noted Beauty Makes Discovery

SHANGHAI GRANTS CHINESE OFFICIAL VOICE IN REGIME

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
SHANGHAI, April 12.—The Chinese demands for a voice in the administration of the international settlement at Shanghai were granted today when the Chinese Taxpayers' association elected three members to the Shanghai municipal council and six other members to positions on local municipal committees. The addition of three Chinese members raises the council to twelve members, including five Britishers, two Americans, two Japanese, and three Chinese.

Although the foreigners here long have been opposed to the Chinese demands for participation in the local government, the action became inevitable following the British action returning the settlements at Hankow, Tientsin and Kiating last year, when the nationalists occupied the Yangtze valley in south China.

The settlement of the Chinese representation question is generally welcomed since the deadlock between Chinese and foreign interests largely was responsible for the Sino-foreign friction extending throughout the country.

The Shanghai municipal council also has announced local public parks will be open to Chinese residents on the same basis as foreigners.

SENATE GETS BILL INCREASING NAVY TO 86,000 MEN

Committee Raises House
Figures $4,000,000.

Washington, D. C., April 12.—(Special.)—Responding to the plea of Secretary of the Navy Wilbur and high-ranking naval officials, the senate naval committee acted today to remedy serious shortage in enlisted navy personnel.

In reporting the annual naval appropriation bill to the senate the committee added $2,785,000 for increasing the enlisted personnel from 83,250 to 86,000 men, the minimum number required "for efficient operation of the ships of the fleet and the handling of naval aviation."

For Enlisted Personnel.
The senate committee added a total of $4,318,789 to the naval bill as it passed the house. As the measure goes before the senate tomorrow for action it will carry 384 million dollars. Aside from increasing the funds for enlisted personnel the bills carried increased funds for reserve aviation, the marine corps and for promotion of certain enlisted men.

Bill Calls for Increase.
"The house bill provides for an increase to 86,000 enlisted men during the fiscal year 1929," the committee stated in an explanatory report issued when the naval bill was presented. "In order that the ships of the navy may be efficiently manned, and a greater number of enlisted personnel assigned to aviation duties, the committee is providing for an average of $4,000 enlisted men."

"The budget estimate of $635,000 for the purchase of 28 planes for reserve aviation was eliminated by the house. This item has been restored by the committee."

TO ASK LIGHTER PUNISHMENT IN CONTEMPT CASE

United States District Attorney George E. Q. Johnson was authorized yesterday by the department of justice in Washington to recommend leniency in the case of Arthur C. Brown, secretary of the National Alliance of Furniture Manufacturers, who was sentenced to serve thirty days in jail for contempt of court.

Brown was held in contempt of court here for refusing to produce the books and records of the alliance during a grand jury investigation into alleged anti-trust law violations by the furniture group.

Fines totaling $500,000 were assessed against the various furniture concerns for their part in the violations.

TWO IDENTIFIED AS ROBBER.

Fred Brown, 32 years old, 7222 Brown avenue, and Carl Hammond, 23 years old, 5858 Champlain avenue, were identified at the stockyards police station yesterday as robbers.

ATHENS REVEALS PLOT TO REVOLT AGAINST REGIME

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
ATHENS, April 12.—Another revolutionary plot has been unearthed in Athens. The authorities discovered a conspiracy by the Pangalists faction for a revolt of the army against the government, and a change from the present regime. Three officers and eight noncommissioned officers were arrested today.

The authorities say they possessed details of the plot for several days, but only attached "moderate" importance to it.

The conspirators planned the climax for tomorrow night, when they intended to meet secretly in certain Athens churches. It was said. Following the revolt, the Pangalists intended to release former Dictator Theodore Pangalos from prison and institute a new dictatorship.

WALSH ASSAILS COOLIDGE STAND ON OIL SCANDAL

Boston, Mass., April 12.—(AP)—The charge that President Coolidge, in the early stages of the oil investigation, attempted to give the public the impression that the whole matter was "more or less of a political fight" and that at least some of the odium attached to the Democratic party was made tonight by U. S. Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, addressing the Harvard Democratic club at Symphony hall. Representatives of 22 college Democratic clubs attended the meeting.

Senator Walsh quoted the words of the President when he announced his intention of engaging a Democrat as well as a Republican lawyer for the oil investigation: "I understand men are involved who belong to both political parties."

"The obvious effect of such a determination on the part of the chief executive," the senator said, "was to give more or less implied sanction to the idea that the affair was primarily a political quarrel and not to be taken too seriously."

UTILITIES CALL FOR RUM FIGURES IN U. S. HEARING

6 Bottles for 25 Legislators Gives Problem.

Washington, D. C., April 12.—(Special.)—The federal trade commission, delving into the publicity methods of Illinois public utility power concerns, directed to consider how far six bottles of whisky would go among twenty-five legislators.

The whisky incident came at the close of the second day of the public hearings on the financial structure of the power industry, and went into the record in the form of a copy of a letter, admittedly written by Howard H. Prather, of Chicago, an official of the National Electric Light association.

Needed in Illinois Session. It said that a "stormy session" of the Illinois legislature was in progress and that the writer could "use a little J. Walker to good advantage." The letter was addressed to H. M. Aylesworth, then manager of the National Electric Light association. Prather asked that he "call on a friend of mine and bring me six bottles."

A trade commission investigator presented the copy, and Prather identified it as a copy of his letter, saying the original had been destroyed. He added that he had given liquor to any members of the Illinois legislature, and declared the whisky was for his personal use.

Asks Commission's Opinion. "How far," he asked the commission, "do you think six bottles of whisky would go among twenty-five legislators? I never gave a legislator a bottle of whisky in my life." Pamphlets calling proponents of government controlled utilities "bolshewiks, reds and communists" were introduced in connection with the testimony of Bernard J. Mulhoney, director, and Rob Roy McGregor, assistant director, of the Illinois committee on public utility information, who said that such literature had been distributed by their organization, on behalf of the Illinois utilities companies.

Speeches Written on Demand. McGregor told the commission of a speech he had written at Mulhoney's suggestion which would attack any senatorial candidate favoring government ownership of utilities. He acknowledged the authorship of a note to Mulhoney in which he said that if he should become a candidate himself, he would attack his opponent as bolshewik because logic or reason was worthless in a political campaign. Mulhoney explained that the committee on public utility information was formed at a time when gas, electric and street railway companies faced a severe economic situation, and came about at the suggestion of Samuel Insull.

STUDY SHORE LINE FUNDS

Washington, D. C., April 12.—(Special.)—A searching investigation by the interstate commerce commission into the financing of the Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee Railroad company since its reorganization by Samuel Insull in 1923, looks as a strong possibility, if a hearing concluded today is followed by a decision holding the North Shore line has outgrown its interurban status.

The hearing, held before C. E. Boies, commission examiner, was based on a complaint filed by three minority stockholders, representing a security holders' protective committee owning 340 shares of the common capital stock of the Insull company. The stockholders questioned the legality of the company's financing and asked the interstate commerce commission to determine the status of its securities.

Acting on the assumption that the North Shore line was solely an electric interurban line, officers of the Insull company floated securities amounting to approximately $16,000,000 without obtaining the approval of the interstate commerce commission. The approval of the Wisconsin railroad commission and the Illinois commerce commission was, however, secured.

CORONER'S JURY RETURNS REPORT ON DAM DISASTER

Los Angeles, Cal., April 12.—(Special.)—The Los Angeles bureau of water works and supply and Chief Engineer William Mulholland of the water board were specially adjudged responsible for the St. Francis dam disaster, which wiped out 450 lives last March 12, by the official findings of the coroner's jury this afternoon.

The coroner's jury, composed of nine engineers and contractors, concluded more than three weeks of daily sessions. The verdict, however, after lodging responsibility for the dam's collapse upon "the bureau of water works and supply and the chief engineer thereof," adds the opinion that "others to whom the chief engineer is subservient including the department of water and power commissioners, the legislative bodies of city and state, and the public at large, should share in the stigma for the disaster."

"It is our conclusion that there be no criminal prosecution of any of the above by the district attorney," the finding continued, saying, "there is no evidence of criminal act or intent on the part of the board of water works, or any engineer or employee."

The work was criticized for lack of "adequate exploration" before construction and "adequate inspection" during construction. The jury thought there was no evidence of the dam being dynamited.

BOORISH YANKEES ABROAD PLAYED AS UN-AMERICAN

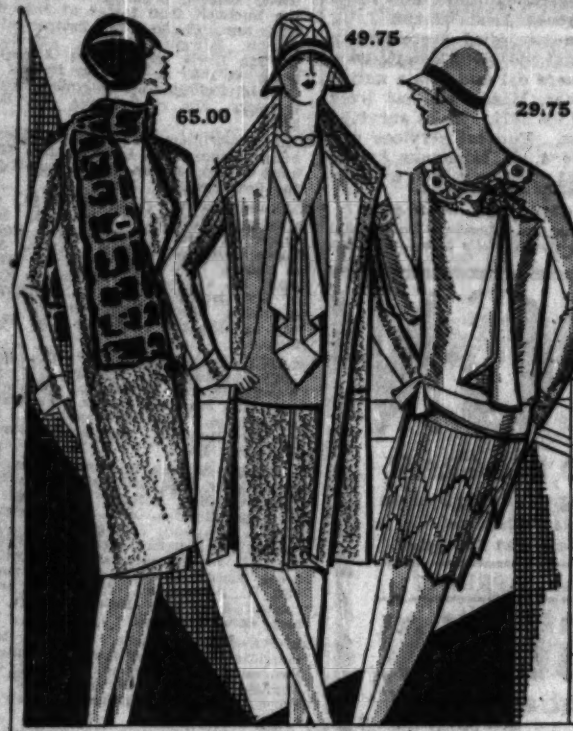

(Copyright, 1928; By the New York Times.) PARIS, April 12.—The ignorant, loud mouthed American who tours Europe and makes himself obnoxious wherever he goes by his overbearing, spendthrift behavior, was condemned today in an address to the American club of Paris by former Mayor W. Freehold Kendrick of Philadelphia.

"These men," said Mr. Kendrick, "do not represent America, and it is the duty of the American club members to bring this home to Europeans. There are some newly rich, or may I venture to describe them as loud mouthed Americans, who do things on their trips abroad which they would not do at home and which are resented by residents here."

"Gentlemen, they do not represent the Americans. They are just newly rich, loud mouthed ignorants who come here and perhaps throw away a thousand franc note on a single drink, or light their cigars with the money of these good people here, or attempt to give an example of American riches by asking in a cafe what the largest wine order ever received has been and then saying, 'Bring me twice as much.'"

WHITE PAVING CO. OBTAINS STREET REPAIR CONTRACT

Will Test New Method as Money Saver.

With a bid $15,150 lower than that of its nearest competitor, the White Paving company has been awarded a contract of approximately $1,000,000 for repaving the city's streets on the north side, Commissioner of Public Works Richard W. Wolfe announced last night.

Under the contract, as drafted, the White company will do all of the street, curbing, and sidewalk repair work until Dec. 31 in the wards north of Madison street, except the 1st, 27th, 28th, and 30th, which Madison street bisects. The city itself will continue to do the work south of Madison street. At the end of the year a comparison of costs will be made and the contract system adopted for the entire city or abandoned.

Other Bids on Two Plans.

Three other concerns, the American Asphalt Paving company, the Barber Paving company, and the R. F. Conway Paving company, submitted bids under two alternate plans. Under plan No. 1, which Mr. Wolfe has selected, the contractor is to rent the city's asphalt plant at 3308 Belmont avenue at $1,000 a month and $150 a day to cover depreciation. Under plan No. 2 the city would have operated the plant, selling asphalt to the contractor at 6 c. a bushel.

The bids, based on the estimated amount of work to be done this year, were as follows:

Plan 1.	Plan 2.
White Paving Co. $928,215	$927,260
Barber Paving Co. $77,465	$77,465
R. F. Conway Co. $55,000	$55,000
American Asphalt Paving Co. $1,017,913	$1,029,913

It is specified in the contract that all the repair work is to be inspected by the city street department and 15 per cent of payments reserved until it has finally been approved. The city reserves the right to extend the contract after Dec. 31.

Expects Quick Action.

Mr. Wolfe said he expects to have the contract signed, bonds accepted, and the White company's equipment on the streets by the first of next week. The contract was awarded April 4, he said, although not made public until yesterday.

With the return of the Thompson regime in 1927 the White concern apparently has returned to official favor. Michael E. White, head of the M. E. White Construction company, with which the White Paving company is affiliated, toured Europe with Mr. Faherty on his subway inspection trip last fall.

The offices of the White concerns are located at 748 Fullerton avenue. Frank L. White is secretary of the White Paving company, of which Herbert B. Detweiler is president. The company is capitalized at $25,000.

BLAMES RADIO WAVES FOR SO MANY STORMS

New York, April 12.—(AP)—Radio waves are increasing the violence of storms on land and sea, in the opinion of Capt. W. H. Parker of the White Star liner Homeric, which arrived 24 hours late today after a buffeting from 40 foot waves which broke three windows on the promenade deck.

The atmosphere of the world, he contended, has been so disturbed and upset by wireless electrical waves that clouds have been precipitated as rain with resulting strong winds. He declared there was no precedent for the continuous storms on the ocean, the snows in Egypt, and the cold along the Riviera.

He pointed out that March 7 was the coldest day of that date in Cairo and the hottest ever recorded in London. An radio activities increase the storms will increase in violence, he said.

Wireless officials were inclined to treat the matter facetiously when they heard of Capt. Parker's theory.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE: The Olive Branch

Elmer Gladly Gives a Hand to Glee Club

Finds Rochester University Boys the Berries.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

Undoubtedly it has been a feminine audience that heard the University of Rochester Glee club sing at 5 o'clock, but it would have been fortunate had the hour been later so that the men might have shared this program equally for it was universally enjoyable.

Knowing from reputation that this glee club was an excellent group of singers, I was a bit disappointed when their opening selections were announced campus and popular songs. But all disappointment disappeared. From the lighter to the heavier their program grew, climaxing in a selection by Bach, and then receding as gradually back again until they came to their close in two college songs. And their style of singing was exactly like their program—gradually sweeping billows of tone from soft to loud and back again. There were no extremes anywhere. Each unit maintained correct time and pitch, and the resultant effect was decidedly pleasing.

The next attraction was George Robertson, bell soloist. WLS, 745 to 8:30, was a world of the refined and the entrancing. Here were musical elf playing to the heart's content, not knowing that we were overheard. The Gavotte, by Rameau, and other and somewhat similar works by early composers—all of it pretty, fascinating. Let's have more and more programs by wind and reed and string choirs! They are different, they are lovely.

The weekly 8 to 9 orchestral program from New York through KYW took an unusual turn. There were fewer orchestral numbers than usual; one of these, however, "The Cliffs" (Rachmaninoff) was just as fine a symphonic orchestra piece as we seldom hear, and I for one, with my program of an hour's duration could have something really special like this in it. This program had a large number of offerings by a mixed quartet, said to be well known singers, but whoever they are they are good singers, quartet singers, and their selections went far into the field of the uncommon.

And as it happened, an excellent male quartet entered the air from W-G-N, 9 to 9:30. Theirs was neither a light nor a heavy program; rather, the happy kind that does not tax the ear nor the mind, but satisfies both.

TEACHER HOLDS FORT AGAINST PROCESS SERVERS

Albany, N. Y., April 12.—[Special.]—

—Bringing of Miss Clara Blanche Knapp, stepdaughter of Mrs. Florence E. S. Knapp, former secretary of state, before the special grand jury which is investigating the latter's alleged crimes in office, was put squarely up to the authorities of Middlebury college in Vermont today, where, for three days she has remained in her room, secure from process servers.

"This grand jury," said George Z. Medalla, special prosecutor, "will continue to operate until we have brought Clara Blanche Knapp within our jurisdiction or have been finally frustrated in that attempt. It is just a question of how long the Middlebury college authorities want the present situation to continue."

Miss Knapp, an instructor in home economics at the college, is the state's most important witness in the prosecution of the former secretary of state on the charges of forgery and grand larceny.

Defying the courts of both New York and Vermont, Miss Knapp is going into her third day of the sleep, protected by a ruling of Dr. Paul Moody, president of the college, that her room in Homestead dormitory is her castle.

Mussolini Orders Envoy to Sign Treaty with U. S.

(Copyright 1928: By the New York Times.)

ROME, April 12.—Premier Mussolini sent instructions this afternoon to the Italian ambassador at Washington, to sign the arbitration treaty between Italy and the United States replacing the expiring Root treaty.

"Italy's signature of this treaty is proof of my desire for peace and my regard for the pacific regulation of all international relations," the duke said. "Furthermore, it is another evidence of the high regard Italy has for the United States, and the accomplishments and ideals of the people of that great country."

$1,600,000 Contract to Be Given.

Two committees of school trustees yesterday approved awarding the $1,600,000 contract for the construction of the new Austin High school to the Harvey A. Hanson Construction company, Virgil Coath, 35, son of J. Lewis Coath, president of the board of education, is vice president of that company.

The school committee, whose chairman is Theophilus Schmid, last month deferred the matter, and it was said at the time that the contract would not be awarded until after the April 10 primaries. Yesterday it recommended the award.

Recommendations Surety Bond. The committee on finance, whose chairman is James A. Hemmingsway, recommended that young Coath's company be given the contract if it furnishes a surety bond for the work. Final action on the award will be taken by the board of education at its regular meeting next Wednesday.

Three other contracts have been given to the Hanson company since the elder Coath became president of the board last May. The contract for the Austin High school, which is to be erected at Pine and West End avenues, is the largest contract to be let this year. The construction of the Spaulding School for Crippled Children, the largest job to be awarded last year, went to Virgil Coath's company.

Dalton Blames Interference.

P. J. Dalton, who was removed from the head of the bureau of contract research by President Coath, yesterday declared that his removal was the result of his attempt to interrupt the procedure of the school board in awarding the $1,600,000 Spaulding school contract to Coath's company.

"Within four hours after I had recommended the posting of a surety bond for the Hanson company I was informed that my services were no longer required," he said.

PREMIER DIVIDES FISTIC DEBATERS IN CANADA HOUSE

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
OTTAWA, Ont., April 12.—They nearly had to rope off a square on the floor of the Canadian house of commons this evening to enable Richard Bennett, Conservative leader, and Solicitor General Lucien Cannon to settle their differences.

With only the bulk of Premier Mackenzie King intervening, Mr. Bennett was shaking his fist in the nose of Mr. Cannon and in effect calling him a liar. Mr. Cannon was trying to get around to Mr. Bennett and urging Mr. Bennett to speak to him, not to the prime minister, to whom Mr. Bennett also addressed some protests.

Call Each Other Liar.
Two days ago Mr. Bennett told the house he hadn't communicated with Mr. Cannon over the release of one Baldy Robb, convicted of election crime in Peace River. Today Mr. Cannon arose and said Mr. Bennett had twice communicated with him. As it was just 6 p. m., closing time, Mr. Bennett had to rush across the floor at Mr. Cannon to pursue the debate.

After a few mutual inferences of provocation, however, colleagues rushed the embattled statesmen to the dinner table to cool off. The prime minister, who stood between them, was the only individual at any time in any real danger, because neither Mr. Bennett nor Mr. Cannon's fistic aim is regarded as good.

Yells "Dirty Skunk."
William Duff, former deputy speaker of the house of commons and now Liberal member for Nova Scotia, won the preliminary bout of the day in the Canadian house, however. Accused yesterday and today by Charles Bell, Hamilton Conservative, of being owner and proprietor of a schooner seized for rum running off the Nova Scotia coast many months ago, Mr. Duff, a huge man, invited all and sundry Conservatives to debate house outside the house with him when he would "put them where they belong."

"I call you exactly what I called you yesterday," said Mr. Duff to Mr. Bell as he sat down. An inquiry elicited the information that yesterday Mr. Duff called Mr. Bell a "dirty skunk" across the floor a "dirty skunk."

The Canadian parliament will have the final approval of the Canadian-American sea-way treaty if and when such treaty is drafted, both Prime Minister King and Ernest Lapointe, minister of justice, made clear to the house today. The prime minister said his government always had had that intention.

OHIO-FRANKLIN CORNER LEASED FOR 99 YEARS

BY AL CHASE.
A ninety-nine year lease on the premises at the southwest corner of Ohio and Franklin streets was closed yesterday. Eugene P. McNeil, president of the George McNeil Teaming company, is lessee and the John High Jr. estate is lessor. The term rental will amount to $762,000. The lease calls for $5,000 annual rental for the first five years; $6,000 for the next five, $7,000 for the next five and $8,000 yearly for the balance of the term. The property fronts 175 feet on Ohio street and 100 feet on Franklin street. A large truck garage to house the company's motor equipment and also the business offices of the teaming company is to be erected from plans by A. J. Fischer. The First Realty company represented the lessee and Mates & Benz the high estate. Charles Toe Freeman was attorney.

The forty-two flat building at the southeast corner of Irving avenue and Argyle street, 119x124, was sold by Charles Pullman to Edwin Frank for an undisclosed consideration, subject to an incumbrance of $121,700. The six apartments at 2647-51 Florence avenue were given in part payment.

The Consolidated Steel Strapping company has taken title from W. B. Snow to the industrial property at 2800 South Western avenue for an undisclosed consideration, subject to $150,000. The property has been occupied by the firm for about five years.

A reported $175,000 was paid by George W. Mengersen to Emil A. Thoreson and Roscoe E. Olson for the twenty-four flats at 7405-13 North Robey street. Nels J. Johnson and J. J. Kalesh were attorneys.

M. Isaacs has sold the six stores at the southwest corner of Devon and Wayne to Rae Simon for a reported $68,000. According to W. E. Ehrenhalt of E. A. Hastings & Co., broker.

BY HARLAND ROHM.

Lately there were no games in the three cushion billiard championship scheduled for last night, as the afternoon games ran almost to the time when the night games ordinarily start. Which may seem to indicate that the afternoon games were dull; but they weren't—by a one rail three cushion count.

The first game, in which Johnny Layton regained his tie for first place by winning from Gus Copulos, 59 to 48, in 15 innings, was unquestionably the greatest game of the tournament. And the second game, in which Willie Hoppe also bounced back into first place by defeating Allen Hall, 59 to 41, in 40 innings, while it dragged for many innings, ended in a blaze of glory when Hoppe ran ten two innings from the finish.

May End in Tie.

The shakeups resulting from the last two days' play among the leaders has left no player with less than two defeats. With only five games to be played, the possibility of a two or three way tie in the finish is greater than ever. At present Layton, Hoppe, and Otto Reiselt are tied for first with five wins and two defeats, while Copulos, with five wins and three losses, cannot yet be counted out.

Layton will play Reiselt at 8 o'clock this afternoon. Hall meets Lookaugh at 7:30 o'clock, and Hoppe and Copulos begin their duel at 8:20. That leaves two games, Reiselt versus Augie Kluckhoffer and Hoppe versus Layton, plus the playoffs of any ties, to be decided Saturday.

Both Copulos and Layton were shooting marvelous billiards in their contest yesterday, and between them they made every shot on the table except a mass which Hoppe supplied in the next game. Copulos won the bank and ran five, and while Layton drew three blanks in his first three innings, in the fourth he turned loose a blast of nine.

Make Amazing Shots.

Not to be outdone, Copulos followed with six as soon as Layton had finished, and they ended the first five innings with Gus leading, 13 to 9. Five innings more, in which Layton scored on every inning, and Johnny led, 17 to 14.

In the seventeenth and nineteenth innings Layton ran four each and in the next three so at the end of twenty innings he had a lead of 32 to 22. But Copulos began a spurt of his own and clicked off eight in the twenty-third to pull up within two points. Layton added two doubles and a three, but Copulos replied with two fours to lead 41 to 40. It was only a moment, however, for Johnny came back with five and two doubles and in 34 innings was in front, 49 to 41. For four innings he drew blanks while Copulos swept up with three doubles and a single, to 48, but on his fifth try for his final point Layton counted it.

Hoppe Takes Lead.

The Hoppe-Hall battle was close from the start with Hoppe leading to the halfway point. At ten innings he was ahead 10 to 6, at twenty innings 24 to 11. In the twenty-second Hall ran six to pull up within six points, and in the twenty-eighth, five, so the score at the end of the thirtieth inning was 26 to 24 with Hoppe in front. Hall took the lead for a moment in the thirtieth and hit a stretch of ten scoreless innings while Hoppe retained a six point lead. Then Hoppe hit a dull stretch of eleven zeros and missed the famous "Indian sign." Hall is alleged to have on Hoppe was to hold true, for Hall pulled up even and at 55 innings was leading 40 to 33, and then Hoppe staged his magnificent explosion of ten consecutive billiards and missed on game point. Hall failed to count twice, and while Hoppe missed again he scored the final point in the sixtieth inning. As he left the table he grinned and said, "God had his arm around me."

POKER VARIATIONS.

DEAR WAKE: Speaking about High Low, tell "Pete Pook" he ain't seen nothin' yet. A guy in this town invented it. "Pete" has only the expurgated edition. The pots are split high and low as in "Pete's" variation—BUT

You deal each man two cards. Then you bet, limited to two white chips. This may be raised before it gets around. Everybody staying gets a third card. Another bet, this time four chips. Another card, six chips, so that every one who stays to the draw has in twelve chips.

Of course, in the single card betting, any one can pass the bet, but if one is made, he must "sweeten" or drop out. After five cards you draw to your hand. Then more bets, but only one raise is permitted. They had to limit that to save several homes and business blocks.

Possibilities? Say, here's what happened the other night. Six were in at the death. High hand won half the pot with a full house, and low hand won with three sixes. The three sixes played the others for low and thought he had a clinch for high so pressed it. When you quit, every one goes to bed in the zoo. That's how wild it is.

The Derby Fever.

Now that the baseball season has opened and we've seen the White Sox in spades with the Cubs impending next week, we're getting our annual attack of Kentucky Derby fever. How we'd like to slip down to Louisville for a couple days to stave a few of the candidates. Wonder what Friend Don would think of it? Guess we'll ask him. [Result later.]

200 Welcome N. Y. Soccer Team at Train

Two hundred fans, Jewish, Scotch, and Irish, were at the Illinois Central station last night to welcome the New York Nationals, who will meet the Chicago Bricklayers in the final of the national soccer championship on Soldiers' field Sunday.

Sigrid Wortman, former Hakoah star, was welcomed by the Jewish fans, while George Henderson, great Scottish center, was the favorite of the Scots, and Alex Chatton, Irish international, came in for most attention from his countrymen.

Manager Bob Millar announced that his team would take a workout at Soldiers' field today. Most of his men are in the best of shape and so are the Brickies, according to Manager Patterson.

Lindblom Is Victor Over Morgan Park

A deluge of hits in the first inning, which was good for seven runs, gave Lindblom High school an easy victory over Morgan Park yesterday, 8 to 0, in a practice game at Hamilton park. The first inning outburst included a home by Peterson, a triple and two doubles and three singles. Jacobs and Gibson divided the five innings hurling assignment for Lindblom and both were equally effective. Five hits were combed from their offerings, but they tightened up whenever the losers threatened to score. Score: Morgan Park.....000 00-0 5 5 Lindblom.....700 1-0 9 1

Batteries—Thatcher, Handbury and O'Mara; Jacob, Gibson and Peterson.

EVANSTON, 12; SENN, 6. Scoring in every inning except one, Evanston slugged out a 12 to 6 victory over Senn, at Evanston. Melaine of Senn supplied the batting feature with a home run. Score: Evanston.....000 001 2-6 Senn.....001 000 3-6

Batteries—Thornton and Nicky Feagary, Davidson and Schwanbeck.

LANE SWAMPS MARSHALL. Larson and Linke battled Lane Tech to a 15 to 1 triumph over Marshall at Lincoln park. The former, in addition to pitching and fanning nine, made three hits in four times at bat, while the latter contributed a home, double and single in three attempts. Score: Marshall.....100 040 0-5 3 3 Lane.....125 700 1-15 13 6

Batteries—Birn, Goldstein and Lipkin; Larson and Smilg.

SIX TITLE BOUTS ON TEX RICKARD'S SUMMER PROGRAM

New York, April 12.—[Special.]—Jesse McMahon, Tex Rickard's matchmaker, revealed today that practically every world's champion of boxing will defend his title at least once under Tex's auspices during the next few months.

Every titleholder with the exception of Mickey Walker, middleweight boxer, who is persona non grata with Rickard because of his affiliation with Jack Kearns, either has signed or is about to sign for a fight in New York. The pugilistic circus will be one of those three ring affairs, one group performing at Madison Square Garden, another at the Yankee stadium, and still another at the Polo grounds, but all on different dates, to be sure.

Six Title Bouts on Card. McMahon, according to an announcement made today which he supported with facts and figures, has already booked six world's title matches and two more are standing on the skids. The championship program in tentative form is:

MAY 4 (Garden)—Ted Morgan vs. Eddie Campbell, welterweight title for the world's junior lightweight title.

MAY 17 (Polo Grounds)—Sammy Nathan vs. Jimmy McLarni, flume rounds for the world's lightweight title.

MAY 24 (Garden)—Corporal Ray Schwartz vs. Frankie Conner, flume rounds for the world's flyweight title.

JUNE 7 (Yankee Stadium)—Tommy Langhorne vs. Jimmy Slattery, flume rounds for the world's light heavyweight title.

JUNE 14 (Yankee Stadium)—Joe Dundee vs. Ace Hudkins or Sweet Sammy Baker, flume rounds for the world's welterweight title.

JULY (date and place undetermined)—Gene Tunney vs. Tom Healey for the world's heavyweight title.

Loughran, McMahon declared, has practically agreed to fight Slattery and will probably sign articles tomorrow. Slattery has already signed.

Plans Two More Bouts. Hudkins has been given ten days in which to accept the Dundee bout. If he fails to sign within that period he will be passed up in favor of Jaker.

The two other matches McMahon has in view are a world's featherweight match between Tony Canzoneri and Andre Routs and a bantamweight bout between Bud Taylor and Kid Francis, both of which would be played in the Garden some time next month or early in June.

Walker is signed to go with Hudkins on July 19 in Chicago, and it reports that Hudkins is being guaranteed $35,000 for his end by Promoter James Mullen as true, he likely will forget all about the Dundee match.

LANE SWAMPS MARSHALL. Larson and Linke battled Lane Tech to a 15 to 1 triumph over Marshall at Lincoln park. GREBE, CHAMPION WATER BIRD, IS POOR LANDSMAN

Becker Gets Ringside Demonstration.

BY BOB BECKER.

Have you ever seen a pied billed grebe, commonly called heldiver or waterwitch, try to navigate on land? For years we have wished for a chance to observe either the grebe or the loon, both famed as expert swimmers and divers, but because of their specialization, practically helpless on land, walk or run on land. Always when we have noticed these water birds they were diving or swimming on a lake.

Spaniel Corners Grebe.

But at last we secured a ringside seat when a grebe tried to turn land-lubber, thanks to the bird finding ability of our spaniel. Several days ago we started on a hike along the shore of Lake Michigan, about thirty-two miles north of Chicago. The springer spaniel romped ahead, one minute on the broad, stony beach, and the next puffing up the steep, thickly wooded eighty foot hillside from which the song sparrows were broadcasting. We saw a kinglet, disturbed a flock of juncos, and then the springer struck a hot rabbit trail, so we watched him work it out.

Suddenly, at the foot of the bluff, where the woods gives way to sandy beach, the dog stopped ears cocked and out from the edge of the brush fluttered a small-winged, water bird. It was too clumsy to run, so it stumbled, careened and fluttered toward the edge of the lake. The excitement was too much for the dog. He "broke" and then galloped ahead and cornered the bird. Picking it up and injured we saw that it was a pied billed grebe, madder than a hornet.

Is Total Loss Ashore.

Practically helpless on land, rarely straying any distance from the water, why had this water bird hobbled sixty feet across a stony beach to park itself in the woods? It appeared to be uninjured except for the loss of a few feathers in its right wing. When tossed into the water it soon huddled out into the lake, making long underwater spurts to get out of reach. A champion in the water but almost a total loss on land—that's the grebe.

California Varsity Crew to Row at Poughkeepsie

Berkeley, Cal., April 12.—(AP)—The executive committee of the University of California has decided to send the state's varsity crew to Poughkeepsie this summer to compete in the national intercollegiate competition. The California boat recently defeated the University of Washington on Lake Washington by half a length. The committee decided not to send the freshman crew east.

MAY WHEAT GOES TO RECENT HIGH ON MILL BUYING

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Millers were on the buying side of May wheat here and at Minneapolis, and while that delivery sold at a fractional discount under the July early, it gathered strength later and advanced to $1.50, a new high on the present upturn, and 3 1/2c over the low of last week, and finished 3/4c over the deferred delivery. General speculative buying was in evidence in the new crop months, but heavy profit taking caused a recession from the best figures. Final trades were at net gains of 1/4c to 1/2c with May leading.

Free selling of corn futures, generally attributed to a local professional operator, had a depressing effect and with scattered liquidation prices declined and closed 1/4c to 1/2c lower. Oats were 1/4c to 1/2c lower and rye 1/4c to 1/2c lower.

Large Trade in Wheat. Wheat market was a big, broad affair, with individual operations counting for little. Commission houses bought freely early and there was good support on all the breaks. Buying of May and selling of July was in evidence and there was free selling of the new crop months by long, as prices have advanced 3/4c to 1c from the inside figures of last week.

High winds and dust storms were reported in parts of the Texas panhandle, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, and eastern Colorado, and there was an increasing number of reports claiming that rain was badly needed, as the moisture received of late has been scant. Prospects of damage to the new in the southwest attracted much attention, as the forecast failed to hold out any hope of relief.

Corn Under Pressure. Houses that usually act for a leading local professional were persistent sellers of corn, and with a lack of aggressive buying prices declined readily, with sellers of bids forced to protect themselves on the way down. Business Alce closed 1/4c higher and Rosam 1/4c higher. Export offers from America were reported as to be out of line as compared with Argentine. Weakness in corn led to local selling of oats, and more than offset claims of damage to the new crop by the recent freeze. Profit taking was responsible for the easier undertone in rye.

NARROW RANGE IN LARD

Lard futures had a range of 1/4c and closed at the inside with net losses of 1/4c to 1/2c. May leading, and Chicago and St. Louis were 1/4c to 1/2c lower. Futures were 1/4c to 1/2c lower. Exports were 350,000 pounds.

Belief and ribs were unchanged with no interest shown. Cash trade was slow. Hog supplies were smaller than a week ago and larger than last year. The market was weaker and 10c lower. Prices follow:

BYE BYE, HONEY. IT'S A FINE SPRING DAY. YOU'D BETTER GET OUT AND TAKE YOURSELF A LITTLE WALK

I'M NEXT.

LETTER MR. WALLET

THANKS MICHAEL

LISTEN PHYLLIS, A LETTER FROM MOTHER. I'VE BEEN THINKING OF ALL OF YOU AND HAVE BEEN DELIGHTED WITH THE NEWS IN YOUR LETTERS. IF I CAN EVER DO ANYTHING FOR YOU I'LL COME ON SHORT NOTICE.

SHE'S A DEAR

AND IF THAT DOESN'T WORK OUT IT'LL BE GLAD TO TAKE SKEEZIX FOR AS LONG OR AS SHORT A TIME AS YOU'D LIKE TO LET ME HAVE HIM.

THAT IS AN IDEA, WALT. WE'LL THINK ABOUT IT

CAN I GO?

o'clock. Yes.

You will, if you go, find Al quite democratic. When he goes forth making a speech, he is a little like the Duke of Devonshire, and the Duke, once of the Avon Gorge, is a little like him. When he walks off stage, he waves his topper in salute to the seat-buyers in the gallery; that's a nice thing for any governor to do.

—of-course, you are right, it is. But Brewster, too, is that way; though he wears striped trousers with a dark coat and all that, he throws his party in his home, and has Florry O'Hara, Jim Thornton, Elizabeth M. and the other Phans, and a Cosmoline-bell as guests. And I ask you, why should they not, in recognition of a baronial hospitality, do their specialties right there in the reception-room? There being no good reason, they

Frisch part of the time played with excellent grace and charm, and at others appeared to be preoccupied with other matters at the expense of his performance.

An error in transcribing notes caused this column to speak of a rehearsal by the name of "Boyle" in yesterday's edition. The name should have been Maj. Gettelson. Beg your pardon.

The Chicago Symphony orchestra closed its season of "pop" at Orchestra hall before an audience that filled the hall to capacity and manifested enthusiasm in proportion to its numbers.

Tribune Cook Book

By JANE E.
Thousand Island Dressing
A recent letter received begins thus: "Recently my husband tasted some Thousand Island dressing. He liked it so well that he asked me to make some for him. I went through my cook books, of which I have a good supply, but did not find any reference to Thousand Island dressing."
Thousand Island dressing is made in something less than a thousand ways, but there are many ways to chop up the same thing. I like to chop up a few acid tomatoes. There is a great difference in the flavor of tomatoes—and add it alone to a mayonnaise, or sometimes I use a few French beans, or a few green peppers. I like to add a little of the tomato before adding it to the mayonnaise. I like this better than chili sauce, and think it more wholesome, but Thousand Island is made just that way, by adding chili sauce to mayonnaise.
But many other ingredients are

ADDINGTON. added, sometimes. In fact, the recipe for this dressing first came into print, I think in 1913, but to the basic mayonnaise now of green pepper, chopped tomatoes, onion, a little bit of hard-boiled sauce, a hard cooked egg, a little salt and paprika and vinegar. You take your choice, and when you have the mayonnaise in one form—usually thick—some of the many commercial ones that appeared under the name "mayonnaise"—one-third cup of one-third cup whipped cream—tablespoons chopped raw pickles or chow chow, combining the ingredients in the order named—this is the dressing. It is my own opinion that chow chow is a decided mistake. It is the dressing of a certain class of vegetable, but such as it is, although I believe I have seen it well as aesthetic right on some
